NOTES OF NOTE

MASL OPENER – Friday kicks off the Major Arena Soccer League's 13th season, the longest-running league in pro indoor soccer history. KC won the league's inaugural game in Dallas 13-4 in 2014. KC is 9-6 all-time in season openers, having for 4 of the last 6.

BLACK FRIDAY REGULARS – Both teams enter a familiar site of playing on Black Friday at Family Arena. The Comets are 5-2 all-time on Black Friday, with a 5-1 mark against STL at Family Arena.

I-70 SEASON KICKOFF – Tonight kicks off a 6-game series between the Comets and Ambush. It is also the first meeting since the Ambush eliminated the Comets in last season's MASL Quarterfinals.

RIAN vs. PAULO – Tonight's matchup features two of the league's top players from last season in Rian Marques and Paulo Nascimento. Marques comes off a career year where he was named MASL MVP for the Comets, averaging 2.5 PPG from 52 points (29 goals, 23 assists). Ambush veteran Nascimento, now 41 years old, was named Goalkeeper of the Year for the first time in his career, setting career records by winning 11 games and playing nearly 1,300 minutes with a GAA of 4.53, also saving 250 shots.

MLS to MASL – MLS veteran Khiry Shelton could make his MASL debut on Friday. After featuring in more than 200 MLS matches, the 33-year-old signed with the Comets on a two-year deal.

MATCH PREVIEW

The Kansas City Comets and St. Louis Ambush will open the next chapter of a storied rivalry when they meet at Family Arena on Friday, Nov. 27. It is STL's only game this weekend, while KC hosts Milwaukee on Saturday.

Friday marks the first meeting between the two sides since STL eliminated KC in last year's Quarterfinal Series. STL ran away with a 9-4 win in Game 1 in KC, but KC won Game 2 by a 6-5 score in STL, only to fall 2-0 in the Knockout Game.

While the Comets won the regular-season series, they lost four of the final five meetings with the Ambush last season, including playoffs.

Rian Marques will guide the Comets' attack after an MVP season. Zach Reget also returns, with former Sporting KC forward Khiry Shelton joining after an 11-year pro outdoor career across MLS and a stint in Germany.

STL was among the best teams defensively last year, led by reigning MASL Goalkeeper of the Year, Paulo Nascimento, and veteran defenders Robert Williamson and Christian Briggs. Only Empire allowed fewer goals last season.

THE FAMILY ARENA

The Family Arena opened in 1999 in St. Charles, Missouri. The multi-purpose venue has hosted the Ambush since the franchise’s return in 2013, and also Hosted the St. Louis Steamers from 2000-01 and 2003-04. The arena’s seating capacity is just shy of 10,000 for indoor soccer. It is located less than eight miles from Lambert International Airport and two miles from the St. Charles Historic District. Among the events hosted include concerts, college basketball, college hockey, religious gatherings, and professional wrestling. The arena was most recently renovated in 2024.

KC SOCCER DOME

The World-Famous KC Soccer Dome has been the official training facility of the Kansas City Comets for many years. Located five minutes north of Downtown Kansas City, KC Soccer Dome is the premier indoor soccer destination of the Greater Kansas City Metropolitan area. The facility has three fields, including HealthyLooks Field, the city's only MASL size field; Quality Plumbing Field, a smaller field without the use of walls; and Capelli Sport Field, a mini field. The Dome hosts men's, women's, and coed adult leagues year-round and youth leagues during the winter.

CABLE DAHMER ARENA

Cable Dahmer Arena is one of the finest arenas in the Major Arena Soccer League. Located just down the road from the Truman Sports Complex in Independence, MO, Cable Dahmer Arena has been a tremendous addition to Kansas City's entertainment industry. The facility hosts more than 100 events every year and has a seating capacity of up to 5,600 with 29 luxury suites. The ECHL's Kansas City Mavericks also call Cable Dahmer Arena home. The arena completed renovations in 2023 that included new seats throughout the arena, a new sound system, and new video boards.
