NOTES OF NOTE

45 YEAR ANNIVERSARY – On this day in 1981, the Comets won the first game in Kansas City indoor soccer history. A Kemper Arena crowd of 15,252 saw the Comets defeat the Wichita Wings in overtime, with Marco Abascal scoring the golden goal, assisted by Clive Griffiths. KC teams have won 746 more regular-season games since.

HOME OPENER HAPPY – The Comets enter Saturday's home opener on a 5-year streak of winning home openers at Cable Dahmer Arena. KC is 11-5 all-time in home openers, but just 1-3 against MKE.

RIVALRY RENEWED – Hot Winter Nights returns with the hottest rivalry in the MASL being renewed on Saturday evening. MKE won last year's series 3-1. KC plays MKE 5 times this season, 3 home & 2 away.

MVP vs. DOY – Saturday's matchup could feature two of the league's top players from last season in Rian Marques and Mario Alvarez. Marques is coming off a career year where he was named MASL MVP for the Comets, averaging 2.5 PPG from 52 points (29 goals, 23 assists). Alavarez was named MASL Defender of the Year for a Wave team that had the league's highest goal difference (+36) after a 42-point season with 21 goals and 21 assists.

MATCH PREVIEW

The Kansas City Comets return to the familiar confines of Cable Dahmer Arena for their home opener against the Milwaukee Wave after beginning the season with a 4-3 road defeat against St. Louis.

A large crowd is expected for the Comets on Saturday evening for a matchup that could feature four of the league's biggest stars. Rian Marques and Zach Reget lead the Comets. Mario Alvarez and Alex Sanchez lead the Wave.

Marques comes off an MVP season where he led the MASL in points, with Reget following with his third 20-goal season and All-MASL selection. Alvarez was named Defender of the Year as a key contributor On both ends of the field, with Sanchez winning the Golden Boot of his career.

The Comets lost last year's season series 3-1, which included dropping both games at Cable Dahmer Arena. This year's five-game series will feature three games at Cable Dahmer Arena, although the next Meeting will be in Milwaukee on January 15.

After Saturday, the Comets are off until a road trip to Tacoma on Sunday, Dec. 13. The Wave are also off until Dec. 13, when they host Baltimore.
