MASL3
MAJOR ARENA SOCCER LEAGUE

Welcome to year five of Major Arena Soccer League 3, and the second season since the combination of MASL 3 and the Premier Arena Soccer League prior to the 2024-25 season.

A total of 13 teams are back from the 2024-25 season, with some new faces, old faces, and new faces in old places making up the 20-team league. In total, MASL 2, MASL 3 and MASL, W, the foundation of the North American's premier pro indoor soccer pyramid, the 2025-26 season will feature 70 teams in three different countries. Including the top of the pyramid – the Major Arena Soccer League – no less than 78 teams will be playing under the MASL banner this winter.

Returning are the league champions – the RGV Barracudas out of Brownsville, Texas – who ended the three-year title run of Northern Virginia FC.

New teams this season in the Atlantic Division include Cumberland Valley SC, the Maryland Storm (who will play where the DMV Gunners played for the last two seasons) and Delaware City FC who will play of of the state's capital Wilmington.

All four teams in the East – the Roc City Boom who played RGV in the championship game – along with Buffalo, Cleveland and Youngstown are all back this year. New to the Great Lakes North Division this year are the Muskegon Risers, but they are far from new to the MASL. They have for the last eight seasons fielded a team in MASL 2, and are stepping down a level in 2025-26. Also back in the pyramid are Cincinnati Swerve while Detroit Waza Flo and Indiana United both return.

The five-team South Division will feature four teams returning from last season including the OKC Certified Lions, who will play in the brand-new 4,500 seat OG&E Coliseum in downtown Oklahoma City this winter. Also back in 2025-26: RGV, the Wichita Selection and Springfield Demize. New is The Bold Dream FC based in Austin and Deportivo Shaolin.

Each MASL 3 team plays a 10-game regular season schedule, with a national playoffs to conclude the year.

Saturday, January 17

Kickoff at 6 p.m. EST

Soccer Sportsplex, North Olmsted, Ohio

» PREVIOUS MEETINGS: This is the second meeting of the year between the two, with Cleveland taking a 22-10 home win in December. Although the game was tied on three different occasions early, the Cleveland offensive overwhelmed the Sahara Gunners (0-1) with 10 fourth quarter goals to pull away for a season opening win. The Samba outshot the Buffalo based Gunners, 63-33, and in fact, Gunner netminder Conner Russell earned third-star of the game honors for his 41 saves. Conner Hollet had four goals and two assists to lead Cleveland and Mikey Schmid had five goals. Sylvester Messiah had a hat trick, and five other players had at least three points including Jake Gratzer with two goals and one assist and George Kephart, Dylan Keeling and Remik Niewiarowski all had one goal and two assists. P.J. Derksen got the win in goal, credited with 10 saves, in splitting time with Keiffer Reed in the Samba net. For the Gunners. Douglass Tshibuyi picked up where he left off last year when he led the league in goals, netting four in this one and adding one assist. Ali Shawish also had a five-point effort with three goals and two assists. Freddy Fakir added two goals.

» GAME NOTES: This is the first game for the re-branded "Buffalo" Gunners, who have always been based out of the Queen City, but previously had gone by the Sahara Gunners. They come into the game 1-1 with a minus 8 goals differential on 25 goals scored and 33 allowed. The Gunners are 1-2 with 18 goals scored and 47 goals given up for a minus 29 goal differential. Both have face the mighty Roc City Boom, with Buffalo falling 22-1 and Cleveland falling 23-3 to account for the high minus differentials.

» PLAYERS TO WATCH: For Cleveland, Conner Hollett is leading the offense with four goals and two assists. The overall goals leader for the Samba is Mikey Schmid with five goals in his two appearances ... For Buffalo, Ali Shawish is leading the way with five goals and two assists. # Northern Virginia at Maryland Storm

Saturday, January 17

Kickoff at 7:30 p.m. EST

Carroll Indoor Sports Center, Westminster, Maryland

>> PREVIOUS MEETINGS: These two teams are meeting for the second time this season, after a dandy contest in Virginia the first time around won by NOVA, 6-4. The Storm led exactly once in this game, less than three minutes into the first quarter on a goal from Michael Curter, but NOVA (2-0) – who has three MASL 3 championship trophies in their case – scored the next two to take a lead they would never fully surrender. Maryland tied the game on three different occasions – the latest with a minute to go in the third on a goal by Drew Wivell to level the game at 4-4 going into the final 15 minutes – but Northern Virginia showed their championship pedigree by scoring the only two goals of the fourth, including the game winner from Jordan Savage with just under 10 minutes to play. Savage was the only NOVA player to have a multi-point afternoon as he tallied twice. Gavin Shields scored twice for Maryland while Wivell had a goal and one assist and Edgar Godoy had two assists. Huber Latona got the win in goal for NVFC.

>> GAME NOTES: Maryland comes in with a record of 3-2 with 47 goals scored and 52 allowed for a minus 5 differential. NOVA is now 2-0 on the season with a plus 4 differential on 18 goals scored and 14 goals allowed. Liam Behrens is the coach for the Storm, which is the reborn DMV Gunners from the last two seasons of MASL 3 play, also in Westminster. He was their coach as well.

>> PLAYERS TO WATCH: Johnny De Souza is off to a big start for Northern Virginia with 3 goals and an impressive six assists in two starts. Three additional players have four points each for Virginia ... Angel Stanley Maravilla Chavez has proven to be a big threat with 12 goals and four assists on the year. Andrew Wivell has a five-goal game to his credit, and has seven total in three starts after missing a couple of games with a tweaked ankle.

>> UP NEXT: Northern Virginia at Cumberland Valley at 7 p.m. Saturday, January 24 at 7 p.m. EST at Hagerstown Fieldhouse, Hagerstown, Maryland / Maryland Storm vs. Baltimore Kings on Saturday, February 7 at 7:30 p.m. EST at Carroll Indoor Sports Center, Westminster, Maryland.

Youngstown Nighthawks at Roc City Boom

Saturday, January 17

Kickoff at 8:15 p.m. EST

Rochester Sports Garden, Rochester, N.Y.

- » PREVIOUS MEETINGS: This is the first meeting of the season between the two teams.
- » GAME NOTES: Deep, experienced and talented, it defines Roc City who is hoping to take that final step this year after falling in last year's championship game. In two games, they have allowed just four goals and scored 45. Youngstown is at the other end, young, inexperienced and growing. They are 0-1 with a 7-3 loss to Buffalo in their only start.
- » PLAYERS TO WATCH: Pick a name, any name, on the Roc City Boom. Goalkeeper Jakeb Mitchell is clearly one of the league's best. Offensively, there are many scorers, led by Austin Gerber with seven goals and two assists, Alex Harling with three goals and five assists and Andriy Demydiv with two goals and six assists. Caleb Munski had six assists in the Boom's last win ... Kyle Benson, David McKinney and Shawn Mackay were the Nighthawks goal scorers in their lone start.
- » UP NEXT: Youngstown Nighthawks vs. Cleveland Samba on Saturday, January 24 at 8 p.m. EST at Farmer Jim's Sports Complex, Cortland, Ohio / Roc City Boom vs. Buffalo Gunners on Saturday, January 24 at 8:15 p.m. EST at Rochester Sports Garden, Rochester, N.Y.

- » GAME NOTES: For Deportivo Shaolin game notes and players to watch, see above. Springfield is 1-1 with 15 goals scored and 24 goals allowed.
- » PLAYERS TO WATCH: The Demize has been led by Jose Ortega who has four goals in two games. Leonardo Borges and Tyrell Phinn have three goals each to date.

» UP NEXT: Springfield Demize vs. Wichita Selection on Saturday, January 24 at 8:30 p.m. CST at Lake County Soccer, Springfield, Missouri / Deportivo Shaolin vs. Wichita Selection on Sunday, February 1 at 8:30 p.m. CST at Edge Sports, Wichita, Kansas.

Sunday, January 18

Kickoff at 7 p.m. EST

Kirkwood Sports, Wilmington, Delaware

» PREVIOUS MEETINGS: This is the second meeting of the season with Delaware City taking a 15-3 win in November in Virginia. Two DCFC forwards led the offensive onslaught as both Agi Pacheco – who has played both in MASL 2 and MASL 3 previously – and Myles Hoodie recorded hat tricks.

>> GAME NOTES: The Marauders continue to play some of their most consistent soccer, but are still yet to be rewarded as they come in 0-6 with 34 goals scored and 69 allowed for a goal differential of minus 35. Delaware City is a club to be reckoned with as they are 4-1 with a goal differential of plus 53 with 73 goals scored and just 20 against.
