Edwin Kelly

May 13, 1980

KelCoatings Ltd., once again, is pleased to sponsor the London KelCoatings Majors Baseball Team. My personal interest in Baseball goes back to the happy times when my Father took me to baseball games in Queens Park - now the Western Fair Grounds. Those days were real high lights in my young life, and I remember them with much pleasure.

Now it is 1980, and I am happy to give some financial support and some encouragement to the management and players of the club. I look forward to another successful year for the team and wish them the best for the 1980 season.

Edwin R. Kelly
President

THE MAJOR'S LEAGUE

The Senior Intercounty may not quite be the major leagues, but it certainly provides an exciting brand of baseball. In 1980 let's make it the London Major's League. Come on out and support this fine ball team as often as you can.

When you're looking for a major league car dealer with minor league prices look to the Major's friends at McManus.

Mayor's Message

The Corporation of the City of London
The Office of the Mayor
Al Gleeson
Mayor

My memories of the London Majors go back a long ways. Back, in fact, to the 1948 North American Sandlot Congress.

So, the Majors have a great tradition in London and the 1980 team is carrying on that tradition.

Good luck, Major's!

Al Gleeson,
Mayor.

REID HEFFERNAN Manager

Reid's approach to the game of baseball is one of total dedication. He has and continues to give a lot of extra to his position as manager. Being a family man and father of two, on the road as a salesman with 3M, and also an area scout with the Toronto Blue Jays keeps Reid damn busy. The Majors have one goal, to win the I.C. playoffs. With Reid's direction and leadership we have an excellent chance of fulfilling our goal.

BARRY FULLER Coach / D.H.

The gentleman of the Majors has decided to turn in his glove for a fun-go and his captaincy for a coaching position. Throughout spring training, Barry has shown much enthusiasm towards his new role. Combine this with his experience, natural leadership qualities and excellent working relationship with Reid and you have one fine coach. Begrudgingly, Barry signed a playing card to D.H., so you may yet again see the I.C. "Sultan of Swat" in action.
