To the London Avcos, I would like to say that the City of London is proud of the continuing good efforts of the team; the dedication of the individual player, and the labour of all those responsible for your managing and training.

On behalf of the City of London, I extend to the London Avcos, very best wishes for a successful year in 1970.

Biography — ROY McKAY

"So how do we improve on that?" — might be Roy McKay's lament as he approaches his second season as Manager of London's entry in Senior Intercounty Baseball.

A pennant and league championship in his first try as a manager only happens when one possesses credentials such as pitching experience in professional baseball and more than 15 years in the Intercounty combined with a keen eye for detail, an overall knowledge of baseball and a deep love of the game.

These attributes and the respect of his players made last years team a "fun" group and worthy champions. Roy's one disappointment was failing to win the O.B.A. championship and this gets top priority for the 1970 AVCOS.

Roy and baseball-fan wife Ruth are proud parents of three children with son Alex being one of the AVCO batboys.

Biography — BOB DEAKIN

After a long absence, this Londoner returns to Inter-county Baseball to coach the AVCOS. Signing his first "Pro" contract in 1954 with Boston, Bob soon became a New York Yankee farmhand and advanced through their system stopping at Birmingham, Winston-Salem and Quincy. In 1957, while an Eastern League All-Star at Binghampton he teamed with future Yankee Cleve Boyer to lead the league in double plays. While playing with Richmond in the International League the next year he suffered the painful thumb injury that ended his career. Married, with a pair of sons, Bob is a fireman.

Biography — NORM ALDRIDGE

After 21 years as a member of London's senior baseball entry, Norm has made his presence known as a player, coach and trainer.

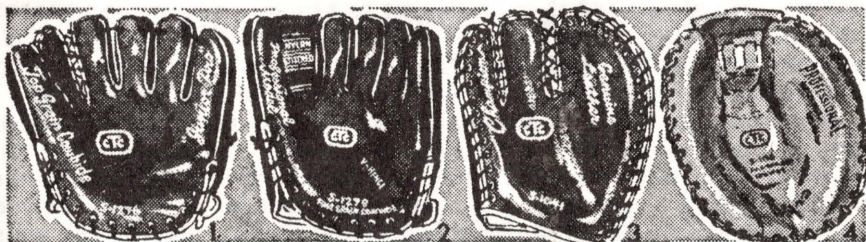

A tower of strength in the clubhouse for many reasons, including morale, Norm was an important part of Roy McKay's "brain trust" last season. Along with Roy, the only member of the 1956 Intercounty champion London Majors still active.

A hard worker and the best batting practise pitcher in the league, Norm will again serve mainly as a coach this year.

1969 — LONDON PONTIACS — 1969

SENIOR INTERCOUNTY PENNANT WINNERS AND PLAYOFF CHAMPIONS

1969 — A YEAR TO REMEMBER

The last year of the Pontiacs saw the locals commence with a fine game winning streak and then finish just as strongly to win the pennant with a 23-5 record. A four game sweep of the semi-finals sidelined Listowel and then the exciting three game lead over Stratford evaporating into a seventh and deciding game won by the men of Roy McKay 7-5.

London's first Ontario Baseball association quest in a number of years found an easy time disposing of Leaside Maple Leafs, Halton County champions, in straight games, and the losing in the Ontario finals to Orillia Majors 3 games to 2 — OBA rules call for any game played after September 15th being played in daylight and all three Orillia wins were of the daylight variety.

Dave Moharter, Brian Murphy and Rick Birmingham were the aces of the pitching staff winning 19 of the 23 games. When playoff time rolled around, Moharter had returned to school and made only "flying" visits back to London, while Murphy was given special permission by Los Angeles Kings to leave training camp to play in three important games. The load fell on Birmingham and the tall righthander came through.

Londoners on the League All-Stars were Ty Crawford and Dave Moharter on the first team with Brian Pearen, Arden Eddie, Wayne Fenlon and Rick Birmingham on the second team.

Birmingham, Murphy and Pearen were important cogs in Ontario's winning the Baseball Championship at the Canada Summer Games in Halifax.

1969 — A year to Remember.

"MA CARTER" — who has been attending London Senior Baseball games for more than 30 years, kisses congratulations to Rick Birmingham, winning pitcher in London's 7-5 victory over Stratford in game seven of the Intercounty finals.

Biography — DAVE LAPHORNE

Perhaps the most under-rated player in the league—"Whitey" as he's better known—is a real veteran, having completed eight years with London's senior entry.

Generally regarded as the league's finest fielding first-sacker, Whitey's a consistent hitting threat and is especially tough with men on base. He's always high in all-star voting — third last year — five votes from first.

Whitey is team captain, player representative to the Directors as well as being a busy teacher, husband, and, since last season, father.

Biography — WAYNE FENLON

Though he's been around for what seems like years and years, Wayne's starting only his third year as a "legitimate" senior. Blossomed into the team leader last season as the real "take charge guy". Led team (second in league) in batting with .375 average, led team (second in league) in hits with 36 and finally gained much deserved recognition as the 2nd team all-star catcher.

Undoubtedly London's pitching record the last two years can be attributed to Wayne's knowledge of league's hitters. He's still single.

Biography — BRIAN MURPHY

One of the pitching mainstays for the last two seasons, Brian returns for a third year after a successful winter with the Springfield Kings of the American Hockey League.

Winning the Intercounty's "Best Pitcher Award" with a 6-0 season (ERA .093) in 1968, Brian was 7-2 last season with a very respectable 2.55 ERA.

Like most pitchers, Brian's top thrills last season were hits HE made — a triple and double — both of which won ball games.

Brian, a Toronto native, married a London girl last spring.

Biography — BARRY BOUGHNER

We don't know how well he played for Providence Reds of the American Hockey League but we'll bet no player worked harder or gave more.

That's one reason Manager McKay is glad "Boughie" is finally a full-time senior. As a junior he helped by playing nearly all positions — even winning a playoff game last year in relief.

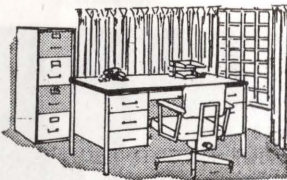

A rare talent who has undoubtedly matured after his pro hockey season including a stint with Oakland of the N.H.L. Barry is married with a son.

Biography — ARDEN EDDIE

Playing his first year as a Senior in 1969, "Ardie" made his presence known with sure-handed catches and booming hits. He batted .333 (good enough for fourth place in the League) and his league leading 19 stolen bases was nine more than the runner-up. Arden capped his rookie year by being named to the second all-star team.

A hustling type of player, Arden's daring on the basepaths brings spectators to their feet, and turns his coaches' hair grey. He's still single.

Biography — JOE HOUGH

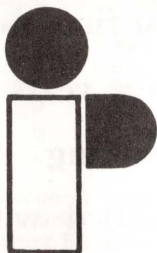

Last year's oldest rookie, at 26 years of age, Joe made many worthwhile contributions to the title march. Used mainly on defence in late innings, Joe's two personal triumphs would be his playoff home run against Listowel and his game-saving diving catch in Listowel to stop a grand slam home run.

Hard-worker Joe is the type of player who makes a manager's job easier, for he's always ready, willing and very able. Married and the father of an active 4 year old.

Biography — Ty Crawford

Last summer he hit a ball into the Thames River — made several "circus" catches — hit a ball so far out of the Kitchener Stadium that it precipitated a riot — Ty is undoubtedly the most colorful player in the league once famous for "characters."

His .372 batting average was the league's third best and he was a near unanimous choice for the first all-star team. A Toronto native who played pro in the Detroit chain, Ty attends Memphis State University in the off-season. He's single.

The Chevrolet automobile, and our Dealership, are both big "hits" with our customers. It's a nice drive to St. Marys — why don't you visit us to see why we are so popular? We'd like to see you soon.

“A Bit of a Tribute”

by Doug Whaley

This is a bit of a tribute, sort of an unofficial bon voyage to a dedicated baseballer, a good manager and a real, fine guy. Ray Yelle has accepted a senior management post with the Holiday Inn organization and will be leaving October first for the Barbados. We wish him well, and we will all know just how much he will be missed after he has left. Ray was one of the first sports people that I had the pleasure of meeting when I arrived in the Forest City, and I must say that never have I had more co-operation and help than I received from Ray. He is not only a true pro in sports and business, but he is a gentleman, to boot. I could go on and on, ad nauseum, tributes sometimes tend to get that way, but I'll try to keep away from it. Ray, a transplanted Park Hill native, had a most promising personal career in pro baseball cut short by the same thing that stopped Sandy Koufax, making it necessary for him to leave the Cleveland Indians organization and pitching, to return to school and become a chartered accountant. He did, however, retain his love and interest of baseball, and I'm sure that the baseball scene in the West Indies will benefit from his knowledge and background. I'm only sorry that I didn't get the chance to know Ray better, but the association that I did have with him was a real pleasure. All that I can say is, thanks Ray, we wish you every success, and I'm sure that everyone else who has known and worked with you feels the same way. Like we said, Ray Yelle, our best personal wishes, and Bon Voyage. We know that wherever you may go, you'll always be safe at home.

Biography — DAVE HALL

Yearly Intercounty managers have many "really experienced" players come out — practise a few times, display their lack of talent, then fade away. Last season, Roy McKay had Dave Hall, a "diamond in the rough" ask for a try-out and change the pattern by sticking to become the club's regular second baseman, bat .298 and lead the team in RBI's with 24.

A native of Forest, Dave played Junior ball in Sarnia before moving to Komoka to teach school. He's 23 and single.

Biography — ED LONEY

A welcome addition to last year's club was trainer Ed Loney. Recently retired from the Canadian Army, after 20 years service in the Sports and Physical Training Branch, Ed's a qualified Trainer and a member of the Canadian Athletic Trainer's Association. Born in Westburn, Manitoba, 41 years ago, Ed played Junior and Senior ball in Manitoba. During the last two winters he has been trainer for Goderich Siftos in 1968-69 and London Ted Dilts Gems in 1969-70. Married with 2 children.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS

1969 — The last year the London Pontiacs could be termed a season of success and failure.

A second straight Intercounty pennant followed by London's first Senior playoff championship in thirteen years were undoubtedly the successes. The heartbreaking final game loss to Orillia Majors for the Ontario Baseball Championship and the extremely poor playoff fan support (in numbers) were the failures.

Largely through the efforts of George Hall, a newcomer to baseball administrative chores, a sponsorship arrangement has been effected with Avco Financial Services. The "marriage" with this vibrant young company, active in many areas of sport in both Canada and the United States, will do much to make LONDON AVCOS a powerful force in Senior Intercounty Baseball both on and off the field.

May I pay tribute to Manager Roy McKay and his team who played so well last season and urge you to give them the support and encouragement they so richly deserve by being "counted" at Labatt Park this summer.

EDWARD (TED) EARLEY,
President.

Special ceremony will open the Friday game with the Guelph CJOY's when JANA JORGENSEN - MISS TEENAGE CANADA - will throw out the first pitch. The lovely MISS JORGENSEN is a green-eyed blonde of 18 years. She's 5' 3" of energy, witness her ballet - dancing ability. She was born in COQUITLAM, BRITISH COLUMBIA and plans to enter the University of Western Ontario in the fall to study Home Economics Let's make this pretty teenager really welcome when she appears on FRIDAY evening Miss Jorgenson's visit to London is being sponsored by A & W Food Services of Canada, Limited and their three local outlets

Two fine pitching performances, last Friday by BRIAN MURPHY and last night by DAVE MOHARTER accounted for 6 - 3 and 6 - 1 wins for the AVCO's - strangely enough, neither pitcher is "over elated" about the classy four hitters they pitched B U T rather the fact that they each pitched up a pair of hits in a winning cause.

Have you bought your "FOLLOW THE AVCO" bumper stickers yet ??????? They only cost .75¢. Why not buy yours tonight?????????
