WAYNE FENLON — Manager/Catcher

The Montreal-born Fenlon is certainly a mainstay on the London sports scene. This 22nd Inter-County season has him in the new role of player-manager. His managerial philosophy is simple: he wants to bring an exciting brand of baseball back to town and in the process bring fans back to the park.

At the plate last season, Fenlon hit .289 in 35 games. He topped the I-C with only one passed ball for the season. His year culminated in the playoffs against Niagara Falls when he cracked three game-winning homers, including a grand slam and another in the bottom of the ninth inning.

BARRY WHITE — Coach

The Majors' third base coach is entering his third season with the team. He is optimistic that the young kids especially those former juniors who are in their second year of Inter-County ball, will show their talent. He is emphasizing baseball basics as the way back to the top of the standings. Off the field, Barry is an avid sailor.

WE SALUTE THE "LONDON MAJORS"

ALEX MCKAY — 2nd Base

Last season, the Majors' second baseman added a new wrinkle to his overall play by banging out six home runs (second on the team) and leading the Majors in RBIs (35). He continued to anchor the middle of the diamond, registering 106 assists, most for a Majors' infielder and good for second in the league. He also had a hand in 21 double plays. The 1986 season marks the 13th for the 28-year-old McKay. As a bit of local trivia he slugged nearly 1000 home runs over a three year period as a regular feature of the TV-London evening sign-off montage.

DAVE BYERS — Short Stop

The big shortstop from Dorchester starts his 17th Inter-County season in 1986. Byers started his I-C career with London in 1969 before a three-year stint in the St. Louis Cardinals' minor league system. Once again, Byers led the team in several key offensive categories, including hitting (.371), on-base percentage (.452), runs (24) and hits (49). Oddly enough, Dave says his weakness in the minor leagues was his hitting, the one aspect of his game that has made him such a valuable team leader for the Majors.

CHUCK WESTMAN — Centre Field

In his third year with the Majors, Chuck continued to provide steady defence in the outfield. He was second in the league in putouts by an outfielder (78). His best moment last year, however, came at the plate against Stratford in June. After a triple earlier in the game, he doubled in the bottom of the 11th inning to drive in the tying run, then scored on a single by the next batter with a spectacular head-first slide to give the Majors the win. Westman hit .296 last season and lead the Inter-County League in stolen bases (16). In the off-season, he plays hockey and thinks about baseball.

STEVE BUSHBY — Left Field/Catcher

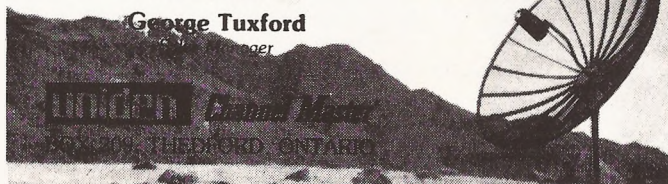

In his first year with the Majors, Steve ran into injury problems early in the year which limited his playing time. He did, however, provide valuable service once healed, filling in at nearly every position, including pitching and catching, and cracking five home runs. One of those homers was a game-winner in a 2-1 win over Stratford in June.

MIKE PATERSON — Pitcher

The iron man of the Majors' staff last year, Mike accounted for one-third of the team's total innings pitched (108) while throwing as both a starter and reliever in 19 of London's 36 games. He was often asked to come back on two days' rest and one of his best performances came under those conditions a 14-1 complete game win over Niagara Falls in June. The Dorchester native is beginning his fourth year with the club and off the field enjoys hockey, golf and bicycling.

RON ST. LOUIS — 3rd Base

The 37-year-old third baseman is entering his fourth year with the Majors. Ron was one of only five Inter-County players to play in all 36 regular season games and also led the Majors in three other offensive categories. While hitting .306, he set an I-C record for at-bats in a season (160) and also led the team in hits (49) and doubles (13). The Tecumseh, Ont. native's big game last year came against the league champion Toronto Maple Leafs when he went 5-for-5. Hockey and horse racing are among Ron's off-season activities.

Shutes has been with the Majors as long as anyone can remember. He's the happy, jolly, photographer, and takes time off in 7th Inning to lead the sing-a-long. At this time shutes has sung his rendition of "Take Me Out to the Ball Game" at all but a few of the Inter-County ball parks. This year should see him complete the circuit.

He hit .261 with the big club. In each of his four years with the Juniors, the team finished in the top four in the province. A Western student, Anderson plays hockey in the off-months.

FRANK BAUER — Pitcher

The Amherstburg native played his jr. ball with the Windsor Mic Mac's. With a year's jr. eligibility left, Frank will sign with the Majors affiliate, the London Juniors. He will play primarily with the senior team but will be available to play with the Juniors when needed. This will assure Frank of plenty of baseball this summer. Frank is currently at Western taking Psychology in pursuit of a Med School degree. Other interests include scuba diving, golf and basketball. Welcome to London, Frank.

JAMES COUCH — Pitcher

At 22, James is entering the fun part of his pitching career. Two years ago, he was scouted by both the New York Mets and Minnesota Twins. The Strathroy native played for eight years in Thunder Bay before moving back to the area last summer. When not playing ball, James is very sports-minded and likes participating in anything.

Another of the fine crop of Majors' rookies, Creighton played shortstop and captained last year's edition of the London Juniors. He batted approximately .350 while hitting eight home runs — two in a preliminary round game of a tournament in Kingsville, Ont. that the Juniors won. Creighton's other hobbies include hockey, karate and golf.

ED LONEY — Trainer

Ed was with the Majors as far back as 1969 when London finished first and won the championship and was with them until 1975 when they last won the championship. Ed is a full fledge quality trainer and certainly has a good track record of putting a winner on the field. After having a triple heart by-pass last May, Ed is back to good health and hoping to help the Majors to another winning season.

DAVE COWDREY — Pitcher

Dave will be a late acquisition for the Majors pitching staff due to schooling in Detroit at Henry Ford Community College. In his second year on a baseball scholarship, Dave is majoring in criminal justice. Dave will once again be playing ball in London after a four year junior career in Stratford where he was the top pitcher leading his team to the Inter-County championship in 1982 with a 9 and 4 record. No stranger to the Majors, Dave was their bat boy in the late 70's.

FRED MILLS

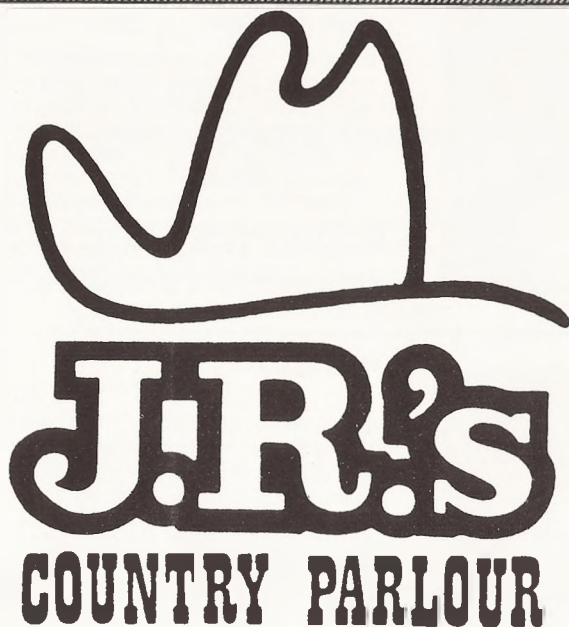

— Bus Driver/Equipment Manager

Although not a ball player, Fred has developed a great interest in the 86 Majors. Anyone that has had any involvement in city darts certainly recognize this man. After an absence of five years, Fred lead his dart team to a strong second place finish in the 3rd division of the City Dart League. Only a few years ago, Fred was the best in London, and even after a lengthy layoff, Fred isn't too far from that calibre these days. The ball club is very happy to have Fred with them.

TERRY COX — Catcher

If you blinked last summer you missed Terry in a London Majors uniform. He heard of our league while playing ball in Florida, and decided to head north. Terry lasted all of one week and two games before signing with the Toronto Blue Jays farm team in Medicine Hat Alberta. Terry finished the year there before being released. We're sorry for Terry, but very happy to have this fine young man back in London.

ARDEN EDDIE

— 1st Base/Centre Field/3rd Base

In season No. 20 with the Majors, Ardie continued to set records. He tied his own Inter-County record for walks in a season (37) and raised his all-time career mark to 422. Ardie was also one of only five I-C players to appear in all 36 of his team's games and continued to post a high on-base percentage (.403), which helped him tie for the team lead in runs (24). The "freshness" of Opening Day is always a highlight of the year for Ardie, although he would love to win "that last game." In the off-season, he plays hockey with the Intra-City Oldtimers and is known to toss a few darts with friends.
