Returning after a years absence Manager Roy McKay looks for a successful season similar to his winning one in 1969. "Great pitching and hitting are the strength of our team. We'll have a tough time replacing fellows like Jim Rodrigues and Terry Holbrook in the infield, but we have some good looking junior prospects." All the best to Roy and his staff in 1974.

A newcomer to the London baseball scene is 22 year old Phil Schmidt. Windsor born and raised he is attending Fanshawe College, taking a Recreation Leadership Program and working on his B.A. at Western's summer school. A big one at 6'3", 210 pounds he pitched for the Windsor Mic-Macs in 1971 when they won the Canadian Junior Men's Championship. Married eight months, wife Cathy says "she loves to watch baseball, particularly when Phil is pitching". While a very welcome addition to the Majors pitching staff we may see this fellow in the outfield because of his outstanding hitting ability.
