YOUTH SOCCER RULES OF THE GAME

ARIZONA SPORTS COMPLEX

Advantage

- The referee applies advantage upon seeing a foul or misconduct committed if at that moment the team that was fouled will benefit from not stopping play. Advantage is applied to the team not only to the player fouled. The referee may return and penalized the original foul if the advantage does not develop after a short while (2-3 seconds). Regardless of the advantage the referee can deal with the proper action by assessing penalties if necessary.

Stopping Play

- The referee has the power to stop the match for any infringement of the Rules, apply advantage or decide the infringements are trifling or doubtful. However, he/she has the power to stop the game for other reasons like misconduct, to a warn players, to issue penalties, to deal with injured players, and to terminate or abandon the match.

Changing Decisions

- The referee can change his/her decision in the case that the ball has not been restarted.

Inadvertent Whistle

- If referee mistakenly blows whistle, the proper restart is a drop ball if neither team has possession of the ball, and a direct free kick to the team that had possession of the ball. The location of the restart would be where the ball was at the time he/she blew the whistle.

Behavior of Coaches and Referee Officials

- Coaches and Referees will work together to give the youth soccer program an experience that represents teamwork, integrity and sportsmanship.
 - A coach may be warned and if the coach is not willing to respect or work with the referee he/she can be removed from the game by the Director or Manager on site.
 - A referee may be warned and if the referee is not willing to respect or work with the coaches, he/she can be removed from the game by the Director or Manager on site.
 - The program, children, and the game deserve our best from our coaches and referees. No one is perfect, so work it out as team and represent with honor.

POINT SYSTEM FOR HIGH SCHOOL PLAYOFFS

Tie Breakers (for playoff standings)

In the event 2 or more teams enter playoffs with the same number of points, a number of tie breakers will be used to determine the seed of each team for the tournament bracket.

1. Head to Head- if the tied teams had played each other during regular season play, the winner of that game will be placed in the higher seed.
2. Point Differential- if 2 teams are tied in a head to head game, or the teams did not play each other in regular season, the team with a higher point differential will be placed in the higher seed. (If there are more than 2 teams tied for a position in points standings, point differential will be the first tie breaker to determine seeds.)
3. Points Against
4. Points For
5. Coin Toss
