TONIGHT'S MATCH-UP: SHARKS VS PIRATES

Written By: Daniel Cimino

After a loss on the road against the defending champion Knight Hawks, the Sharks return to Jacksonville for their home opener vs. in-state rival Orlando Pirates. The Sharks enter this matchup with a 1-1 record, while the Pirates are undefeated at 3-0

The Pirates are off to a fast start in their first ever season in Orlando. All three of their wins have been by just one score, with their latest being an overtime 61-55 win vs the Tulsa Oilers.

After winning their first game of the season against the NAZ Wranglers, the Sharks lost a back and forth battle vs. Vegas by a final score of 54-43. Despite leading in many offensive categories throughout the night, a pick-six in the second quarter proved to be the dagger, as the Sharks suffered their first loss of the season. They look to bounce back against an undefeated Pirates squad looking for a statement win.

Players to watch

Jimmie Robinson Jr. (RB, JAX) - Jacksonville's main RB continues to impress early in the season. Against Vegas, he ran for 39 yards and two touchdowns while also being an outlet for the Sharks passing game, registering 75 yards on seven receptions.

Paxton DeLaurent (QB, ORL) - The rookie under center has been the main focus of the Pirates offense so far this season. He's tallied 532 passing yards and nine touchdowns over his first three games in the league.

Redd Douglas (WR, JAX) - Douglas has quickly emerged as a preferred target for Sharks QB James Cahoon. He was dangerous against Vegas, recording 79 yards on four receptions, including a touchdown.

JOURNEY TO THE SHARKS: JAMES CAHOON

Written By: Katie Wright

James Cahoon's football journey is a story of steady growth, record-setting performances, and a seamless transition to the professional stage. Now joining the Sharks, the 6-foot-4, 215-pound quarterback brings both size and proven production to the roster.

Cahoon arrived following an impressive rookie season with the Iowa Barnstormers, where he quickly established himself as one of the league's most dynamic young quarterbacks. In his debut campaign, he threw for 2,888 yards and 56 touchdowns, completing 255 of 463 attempts. His impact wasn't limited to the air — Cahoon also added 127 rushing yards and a touchdown, showcasing his ability to extend plays and contribute in multiple ways. He even recorded a solo tackle, highlighting his all-around presence. His performance earned All-Rookie recognition and established him as a rising talent.

Before making the jump to the professional level, Cahoon built a standout collegiate career at Bridgewater State University. He became one of the most accomplished quarterbacks in program history, setting a school record with 7,065 career passing yards. In his final season, Cahoon completed 182 of 328 passes for 2,099 yards and 13 touchdowns, posting a 63.2% completion rate while averaging 209 yards per game.

A native of Buzzards Bay, Massachusetts, Cahoon began his football career at Bourne High School, where he laid the foundation for his success. Now with the Sharks, Cahoon looks to build on that momentum. With his combination of size, arm talent and proven production, he adds a strong presence under center and brings excitement for the season ahead.

FEATURED STORY

LAST GAME: SHARKS FALL SHORT TO DEFENDING CHAMPS

Written By: Daniel Cimino

The Jacksonville Sharks suffered their first loss of the season, falling to last year's champions the Vegas Night Hawks by a final score of 54-43 at Lee's Family Forum.

The game began as a back and forth affair, with the Sharks carrying a 14-13 lead going into the second quarter. A quick scoring drive by the Knight Hawks followed by a pick-six gave Vegas a lead they never relinquished, maintaining a multi-score lead right up until the final whistle.

The Jacksonville Sharks held advantages in several key statistical categories, totaling 286 yards of offense and controlling possession for more than 38 minutes. Vegas, meanwhile, finished with 242 yards and just over 31 minutes of possession.

Jacksonville's production was fueled by a balanced passing game that generated 223 yards on 19-of-27 attempts, while the Knight Hawks found success on the ground, rushing for 105 yards and averaging an impressive 6.2 yards per carry. Despite the Sharks' edge in first downs (14-10), third-down efficiency (50 percent), and return yardage (98-41), Vegas capitalized on their opportunities with a more explosive yards-per-play average and a timely defensive takeaway, helping swing momentum in key moments. The Sharks defense couldn't get a stop all night and that along with a couple bad penalties was the difference in the game.

Statistical leaders

RB Jimmie Robinson Jr.: Rushed for 39 yards and two touchdowns. Added 75 receiving yards on seven receptions.

QB James Cahoon: Registered 186 passing yards to go along with two touchdowns (one through the air and one on the ground), seven rushing yards and an interception.

WR Redd Douglas: Led all receivers on the night with 79 yards and a touchdown.

VKH Notes: QB Jayden de Laura threw for 137 yards and two touchdowns, while rushing for 13 yards and a TD on the ground. RB Josh Tomas led Vegas on the ground, rushing for 53 yards and three touchdowns. DB Irshaad Davis led the defense, registering a key 15 yard pick-six in the second quarter

Redd Douglas was a wide receiver at the University of Findlay who had a strong college career. He appeared and started in all 11 games during his senior season, finishing with 43 receptions for 573 yards and four receiving touchdowns, along with 48 rushing yards on seven carries. He recorded a season-high six receptions for 102 yards against Ohio Dominican (10/19). Beyond his offensive contributions, Douglas showcased his versatility with 24 kick returns for 586 yards, including a long of 65, and added two solo tackles. His performance on and off the field earned him Academic All-District honors from the College Sports Communicators (CSC). Following his standout season, Douglas was invited to the New York Giants rookie minicamp.
