TONIGHT'S MATCH-UP: SHARKS VS BLIZZARD

Written By: Kyra Secor

The Jacksonville Sharks (9-6) return to the Shark Tank for their final home game of the 2025 regular season as they take on the Green Bay Blizzard (10-5). With all eight playoff spots officially locked in, Week 19 is all about seeding, and both teams have plenty to fight for.

After two tough back-to-back losses, the Sharks are looking to bounce back, tighten up their defense and get some mojo back ahead of their first playoff run in the IFL. Meanwhile, the Green Bay Blizzard are rolling into Jacksonville with momentum after a dominant 56-27 win over the Massachusetts Pirates.

The Blizzard currently hold the top spot in defensive production across the IFL, with 19 interceptions and 11 fumble recoveries. Their offense poses a significant challenge for the struggling Sharks' defense. In a move to boost offensive power, the Sharks have signed wide receiver

Harry Ballard, who spent time with Green Bay earlier this season and will now suit up against his former team.

But this weekend isn't just about football, it's also about honoring heroes. The Sharks have saved their best theme night for last. It's for Military Appreciation Night, where we salute the brave men and women who serve our country.

Several players on the 2025 Jacksonville Sharks roster share a special bond that goes beyond football. They're hometown boys who have come back to represent Jacksonville on the professional stage. Raised in or around Jacksonville, these athletes began their football journeys on local fields and in nearby high school stadiums. Now, they're playing together for their hometown IFL team, the Jacksonville Sharks, giving fans a sense of pride and connection that runs deeper than wins and losses.

Tyler Huff (Orange Park, FL – Ridgeview High School), Jaedon Stoshak (Jacksonville, FL – University Christian High School), Jay Davis (Jacksonville, FL – Edward White High School), Karon Ashley (Jacksonville, FL – Potter's House Christian Academy), Vance Bennet (Saint Johns, FL – Creekside High School), Richie Coffey (Baldwin, FL – Baldwin High School), and Tyrese Ross (Jacksonville, FL - Trinity Christian School) all have deep roots in the local football community. Each has made a name for himself in Florida's high school circuit before moving on to collegiate or professional levels. Now back on home turf, they're playing not just for money; they're playing for the same community that cheered them on from the beginning.

Their homecoming brings a unique dynamic to the Sharks' locker room. It creates a strong sense of loyalty, purpose, and pride. Fans recognize these names not only from game-day programs but from local sports headlines, High School, and even youth leagues. Watching these players return to Jacksonville to compete at a high level brings back memories and inspires the next generation of athletes. It's more than just football; it's full- circle moments like these that unites communities in the heart of the Shark Tank.

TIARA DANCER OF THE GAME

HOW DO YOU STAY CREATIVE WHILE REHEARSING THE SAME ROUTINES OVER AND OVER?

I STAY CREATIVE BY INCLUDING DIFFERENT FACIAL
EXPRESSIONS TO TEST OUT WHAT FEELS BEST. I ALSO STUDY THE MUSIC SO I'M ABLE TO FULLY IMMERSE
MYSELF IN THE CHOREOGRAPHY.

WHAT'S YOUR FAVORITE MEMORY FROM THE ATTACK?

MY MOST MEMORABLE EXPERIENCE WHILE ON THE ATTACK DANCE TEAM IS HARD TO PIN DOWN. IF I HAD TO CHOOSE, IT WOULD BE SINGING THE NATIONAL ANTHEM
AT THE LAST GAME. I'VE NEVER SANG IN FRONT OF A
CROWD THAT BIG BUT I KNEW GOD, MY TEAMMATES
AND DIRECTOR WERE RIGHT THERE WITH ME. THEY ALL
HELPED ME THROUGH MY NERVES MORE THAN THEY KNOW.

WHAT ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE TO SOMEONE WHO WANTS TO BE ON THE ATTACK?

PREPARE AND GO FOR IT. I'VE WANTED TO AUDITION FOR YEARS AND I TALKED MYSELF OUT OF IT. ONCE I STOPPED SECOND GUESSING MYSELF AND JUST GOING THROUGH WITH THE AUDITION, I FOUND OUT THAT I'M BETTER THAN I GIVE MYSELF CREDIT FOR. BEING ON THE ATTACK DANCE TEAM GAVE ME THE CONFIDENCE I NEEDED TO PUSH MYSELF THROUGH OTHER AREAS OF MY LIFE. I'M EXTREMELY GRATEFUL I TOOK THAT STEP.

Healthcare FEATURED STORY

LAST GAME: OILERS TAKE DOWN SHARKS

Written By: Kyra Secor

The Jacksonville Sharks let another opportunity slip away on the road against the Tulsa Oilers, falling 38-47 in another disappointing game. Despite a strong start and several explosive plays, the Sharks struggled with costly defensive penalties and errors and were ultimately unable to stop a playoff hungry Tulsa squad.

Quarterback Tyler Huff came out strong, completing a key first down to Marcus Rogers before running the ball in himself for the game's opening touchdown. A successful extra point gave the Sharks a 7-0 lead. Tulsa answered quickly, with Isaiah Scott hauling in a 5 yard touchdown reception to tie the game 7-7 by the end of the first quarter.

The Oilers kept the momentum going into the second quarter, as Scott snagged another touchdown on a 10 yard pass to take the lead. The Sharks responded with a big 35 yard kickoff return from Larry McCammon, setting up another rushing touchdown by Huff. Dylan Barnas then nailed a deuce, putting the Sharks up 16-14. However, Tulsa answered back with a touchdown from J. Smith. McCammon fired back with a touchdown of his own, though the extra point was blocked. The Sharks offense had a tough night with nothing coming easy. Tulsa gained the lead again just before halftime when the Sharks couldn't keep them out of the end zone with 3 second left in the half. Resulting in a 28-22 halftime score. With Tulsa getting the 2nd half kickoff the Sharks put themselves in a bad position being 2 possessions behind.

Refusing to give up, Ka'ron Ashley hauled in a touchdown pass and Barnas added a deuce after a missed extra point, narrowing the gap in the score to 30-40. But the Sharks defense couldn't make a stop and Tulsa struck again with a touchdown pass to #25 Johnson, extending their lead to 46-30. Huff sparked a final push with a 30 yard pass to Rogers, followed by a touchdown grab from Rogers and a successful two point conversion but it was too little to late, The score now 38-47. Resulting in another bad loss for the Sharks.
