TONIGHT'S MATCH-UP: SHARKS VS FREIGHT

Written By: Cohen Freeman

Following a successful two-game road trip, the Jacksonville Sharks return to the Shark Tank riding a six-game winning streak for a rematch against the Fishers Freight.

The Sharks return home with immense momentum after sweeping a brutal two-game road trip. They first defeated this same Fishers squad 68-50 on May 16, followed by a gritty 60-48 victory over the Iowa Barnstormers. Sitting comfortably in second place in the Eastern Conference, Jacksonville remains the only team in the conference undefeated against conference opponents this season.

Conversely, Fishers come into this contest desperate to right the ship. After a strong 5-1 start to the season the Freight find themselves in a 3 game losing skid coming off the bye week. The Freight will come into this game with a new resolve as the taste of the loss against the Sharks is still fresh.

The Freight's game plan has consistently been about controlling the trenches and winning the game through their highly efficient run game. To replicate their week 10 victory, the Sharks must take away the Freight's ground game. Forcing Fishers into third-and-long plays, taking away their run options making them alter their run first identity, will give Jacksonville's defense the tactical advantage.

For the Sharks, continuing to dominate through the passing game will be the key to keeping up with a Fishers squad that is top 2 in scoring. Over the past 4 weeks Quarterback James Cahoon has passed for an amazing 17 touchdowns and 0 interceptions. Cahoon must continue his hot streak after slicing up defenses on the recent road trip. Look for him to lean heavily on elite targets like Marquel Wade to stretch the field, alongside explosive playmakers Jaedon Stoshak and Redd Douglas to win short route matchups and move the chains.

SHARK TANK ADVANTAGE: JACKSONVILLE EYES 4-0 HOME RECORD

Written By: Katie Wright

The Jacksonville Sharks have made a statement every time they have taken the field at home this season. Entering this week undefeated on their home turf, Jacksonville now has the opportunity to improve to 4-0 at home and continue building what has quickly become one of the strongest home-field advantages in the IFL.

Inside the Shark Tank, the atmosphere has been electric from kickoff to the final whistle. Packed with energy, noise, and momentum, Jacksonville's home crowd has played a major role in helping fuel the Sharks through key moments this season. Opposing teams have struggled to match the intensity that comes with playing in front of Shark Nation, and the Sharks have embraced that edge every time they step onto the field.

The success at home has come from all phases of the game. Jacksonville's offense has consistently delivered explosive plays and fast starts, putting pressure on opponents early. Defensively, the Sharks have continued to create momentum-changing stops, turnovers, and big plays that keep the crowd engaged and make it even harder for visiting teams to settle in. Special teams have also contributed in critical moments, helping shift the game and energize the arena.

As the season progresses, the Sharks continue to establish themselves as one of the hottest teams in the league, and much of that success has been amplified by their performances at home. The confidence and chemistry this team has shown in Jacksonville has made the SHARK Tank one of the toughest environments in indoor football, with every home game bringing another opportunity to strengthen that reputation.

Now, with a chance to go 4-0 at home, the Sharks are focused on protecting their home turf once again. Another victory in front of Shark Nation would not only preserve their undefeated home record, but further prove why Jacksonville has become one of the most difficult places for opponents to play in the IFL this season.

SHARKS HANDLE BUSINESS AGAINST BARNSTORMERS

Written By: Cohen Freeman

The Jacksonville Sharks extended their winning streak to six games on Friday night, improving to an overall record of 7-1 by pulling off a gritty road victory over the Iowa Barnstormers, 60-48, at Casey's Center.

The Sharks wasted no time asserting themselves in hostile territory, jumping to a dominant 32-14 lead by the halftime break. Wide receiver Marquel Wade ignited the scoreboard early, hauling in an explosive 26-yard touchdown pass from quarterback James Cahoon less than three minutes into the first quarter. Running back Jimmie Robinson Jr. quickly doubled down with a 5-yard rushing touchdown to put the pressure squarely on Iowa.

However, the Barnstormers refused to pack it in on. Behind their newly acquired starting quarterback, Clifton McDowell, Iowa staged a massive third-quarter resurgence. McDowell's heavy ground game accounted for four rushing touchdowns on the night, forcing the high-flying Sharks to recalibrate under intense defensive pressure and an energetic Des Moines crowd.

Just as the momentum began to swing back to Iowa, Jacksonville's signature resilience took over. The Sharks leaned heavily on their precise passing attack to match the Barnstormers blow for blow. A combination of timely explosive plays on offense and critical fourth-quarter defensive stops proved too much for Iowa to overcome, effectively securing another hard-fought road victory for the Eastern Conference leaders. o the endzone for a touchdown.

Statistical Leaders:

- QB James Cahoon completed 14 of his 23 passes (60.8%) for 163 yards and 4 touchdowns, adding 25 rushing yards and another score on the ground.
- WR Marquel Wade served as the definitive explosive option through the air, carving up the defense for 82 yards on 7 receptions and finding the endzone 3 times.
- WR Jaedon Stoshak provided excellent efficiency alongside, reeling in 2 critical receptions for 25 yards and scoring 2 touchdowns.
- DB Robert Jones III anchored in the defensive highlight reel late in the game, coming up with a clutch interception and taking it all the way back for a defensive touchdown.
