

Parents Code of Conduct

As parents and spectators we must remember that our coaches and are doing the best that they can to teach the players the game, rules, and to act properly on and off the field. The Premier Baseball Association appreciates the job they are doing and expect parents to acknowledge their efforts as well. Everyone participating in the Premier Baseball Association whether as players, coaches, officials, parents or spectators, is entitled to do so in an environment of courtesy and safety. Parents and spectators are encouraged and welcomed to attend all games and special functions hosted by the Premier Baseball Association.

Parents/spectators should:

Treat everyone with respect

- Cheer in a positive manner for all competitors
- Respect the decisions of officials
- Do not interfere with the play or competition
- Be courteous and respectful to other spectators, all competitors, coaches, event organizers and officials

Exercise self-control at all times

- Respect the rules and regulations of the facility and the Premier Baseball Association
- Refrain from disrespectful conduct of any sort, including profanity, obscene gestures, offensive remarks, taunting or other actions that demean any individual.
- A “zero tolerance” on these points will be taken:
 1. Refrain from the use of physical force of any kind including the use of threat of violence in any form
 2. Refrain from dugout visits during a game

Warnings and Ejections

- Any parent or spectator engaged in profane, rude or threatening speech, gestures or actions are subject to ejection from the park by the umpires or a member of the Board of Directors of the Premier Baseball Association.
- Umpires have been given the authority by the Premier Baseball Association to determine whether a game continues; the game may be suspended or forfeited until or terminated unless, the violator ceases his or her conduct or leaves the park following their ejection. The coach of the team (home or visitor) with the violator is responsible to direct their affiliate from the park to avoid forfeiture or suspension of their game.

Injuries

- It is the duty and responsibility of the Parent to inform in writing the Head Coach and General Manager of the team of any injuries or medical conditions.
- This includes both on the field injuries and any injuries that occur away from the field that may impact the safety of the player.
- When a written account is received the player will not return to the active roster until a clearance is provided by the parent
