

JARROD MANICK

PREMIER ASSISTANT COACH

Jarrold Manick enters his 6th year for the Abbotsford Cardinals, serving as the pitching coach for the Senior staff.

Manick played for the Abbotsford Cardinals for two years from 2015-2016.

Manick was a member of the 2016 Abbotsford Cardinals Premier PBL Champions.

After graduating, Manick went on to attend McPherson College (NAIA) and played for four years from 2016-2020. During his time at McPherson College, Manick became the program's all time record holder for saves, as well as the single season record holder for saves.

After college, Manick joined the Abbotsford Cardinals Junior Coaching Staff as a pitching coach, where he eventually worked his way up to become the program's Senior Pitching coach.

Manick also serves the baseball community as an instructor for Yale Baseball Academy, as well as Nicholson Baseball.
