RIVER KINGS WRAP UP 2019 SEASON

- The River Kings finish the 2019 season with a trip to Green Bay, Wisconsin. The River Kings fell to the Blizzard last week, 56-15, in a game at the US Cellular Center in Cedar Rapids.
- Cedar Rapids will look to slow down running back Anthony Philyaw this week, who ran over the River Kings defense for 4 touchdowns on 88 yards last week.
- The River Kings offense was able to only generate 145 yards last week, although the Blizzard defense is quite stout; they rank third in the IFL in total yards allowed per game, rushing yards allowed per game, and points allowed per game. A higher output from the Cedar Rapids offense will be necessary this week

MARK STOUTE | HEAD COACH

Stoute will return to Cedar Rapids where he coached the Titans from 2012-2016 and took a four-win team in 2012 to four-straight playoff appearances (2013-16) with an overall record of 40-17 in those seasons. He was named the 2013 IFL Coach of the Year and helped the Cedar Rapids franchise earn the distinction as the 2014 IFL Franchise of the Year.

Prior to Cedar Rapids, Stoute was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator for the Milwaukee Iron of the Arena Football League (2009-2012) who won the 2010 Midwest Division Championship with a 12-6 record. During his time in Milwaukee, Stoute played a pivotal role in rewriting the Iron and AFL record books while finishing #1 in the AFL in almost every offensive category.

As the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator (2005-2009) for the Green Bay Blizzard, while they were a member of the af2, Stoute helped the franchise to playoff appearances in five consecutive seasons including an American Conference Championship in 2006 and Arena Cup appearance. His responsibilities also extended into player personnel-related operations, where he helped place 45 players into the AFL and CFL over a three-year span as the team achieved a team record of 44-24. He also spent the 2007 regular season assisting the league with the Laredo Lobos franchise.

Stoute's AFL experience extends back to 1995 with the Connecticut Coyotes. He also spent time with the Charlotte Rage (1996), Florida Bobcats (1997-98), New England Sea Wolves (1998-2000) who later sold to an ownership group that made them the Toronto Phantoms (2000-02), the Indiana Firebirds (2003-04), and Tampa Bay Storm (2004-2005). He also spent 2002-03 with the af2's Mohegan Wolves.

Over the last two years, Stoute spent time with the Jacksonville Sharks of the AFL and NAL (2016-17). He was also with the Nebraska Danger of the IFL to begin the 2017-18 season.

Mark currently resides in Connecticut. He attended Kentucky State University in Frankfort where he majored in Business Management and Computer Science. He has been a member of the American Football Coaches Association since 1995 and during the Fall, works with an area High School football program.

2019 GAME SUMMARIES

In the Week 15 matchup between the Cedar Rapids River Kings and the Arizona Rattlers, the Rattlers kept their undefeated record intact, as they clinch a first-round bye in the IFL Playoffs. With the River Kings' playoff hopes already crushed, this game was more-or-less in preparation for next season.

In the first quarter, there was a glimmer of hope for the underdog River Kings (1-11), but as they were in the red zone a bad snap cost them a majority of the field in yardage, as they got pushed back all the way to their half of the field. Drew Powell was able to get the first touchdown for Arizona (12-0) with a 10-yard run. Their second touchdown of the quarter was a 1-yard rushing touchdown by Roland Genesy. Both of the field goal attempts by the River Kings were unsuccessful, as the first kick was blocked and the second went wide left.

To end the first half, the River Kings got two more of their field goals blocked, keeping them scoreless, but Arizona was able to tack on two more touchdowns. The first was another 1-yard rush by Roland Genesey, and the second touchdown was a 45-yard pass from Powell to Harrington.

At the beginning of the second half, the Arizona Rattlers really blew things out of the water for the River Kings; their third quarter resulted in three more touchdowns. The first of the third quarter was a 26-yard interception return by Davontae Merriweather, which brought the score to 35-0 in favor of Arizona. That interception put Dalton Oliver on the bench and Ben Wilkerson found himself as the quarterback for the rest of the game. The next touchdown for Arizona was another 1-yard rush, but this time, Jamal Miles was credited with the touchdown. The third and final touchdown of the third quarter goes to Devin Cockrell with the 38-yard fumble recovery. This defense was making themselves known by Cedar Rapids.

For Cedar Rapids, their third quarter could be seen as their best quarter of play. On defense, La'Darius Newbold was able to pick off the Rattlers quarterback, but the interception was called back due to a penalty. The play after, Cedar Rapids was able to recover a fumble, which, after review by the referees, was confirmed. That fumble recovery set up a huge 33-yard catch by Ezell Ruffin. However that big play did not put the River Kings in the end zone, as they coughed the ball up, which then turned into seven points for the Rattlers.

In the final quarter, the Rattlers scored on a 4-yard rush by Roland Genesy, and that brought Arizona to what would be the final score, which was 56-0. Wilkerson made some big runs in the quarter but they were not able to result in any points

Next week, the River Kings start a two-game series against the Green Bay Blizzard at home. The game will be kicking off at 7:05pm CST. To catch next week's game, head on over to the U.S. Cellular Center next Saturday, June 8, at 7:05pm CST. If you're unable to make the game in person, feel free to watch the game on the IFL's YouTube Channel.

2019 GAME SUMMARIES

Week 13 - Rock Island, IL Tax Slayer Center

The River Kings had a new man at quarterback for most of the game, but the result was the same as Cedar Rapids fell to the Quad City Steamwheelers, 48-29 Friday night in Rock Island, Illinois. The Steamwheelers (4-7) needed the win to keep their playoff hopes alive while the River Kings (1-10) are still winless on the road.

The River Kings put in newly acquired quarterback Dalton Oliver in the second quarter, replacing starter Ben Wilkerson, who had gone 3-5 for 35 yards but couldn't find the endzone. Oliver went 11-21 for 118 yards and had three touchdowns. The new quarterback also had one interception.

Cedar Rapids could not find any traction on the ground, netting just 9 total yards rushing on the night. Starting quarterback Wilkerson led the squad in rushing with 23 yards on nine attempts.

After scoring a touchdown on the opening possession of the second half, Steamwheeler quarterback EJ Hilliard fumbled a snap on the Quad City's first play after the kickoff and the River Kings recovered. Oliver needed just one play to find Jordan Smith for his second touchdown pass of the night, pulling Cedar Rapids to within four points at 27-23. Smith finished the night with those two scores, four receptions and 41 yards.

After Phillip Nwosu's short kickoff the Cedar Rapids' defense came up with a defensive stand, keeping the Steamwheelers from scoring and forcing a turnover on downs. Oliver threw his first interception of the night to end the River Kings successive drive.

The Steamwheelers put the ball in the endzone on their next drive, going up 34-23 on a Zavier Steward six yard touchdown run. Quad City would score again to go up 41-23 before the River Kings answered with a 23 yard touchdown pass from Oliver to Marquel Wade, to pull within 12 points after a missed PAT. A failed onside kick attempt led to a short field for the Steamwheelers, and Hilliard ran in from seven yards out for the final Quad City touchdown of the night.

Tonight's game is bookended by bye weeks, as the River Kings were off last week and are off again next. Cedar Rapids returns home June 1st for their first home game in a month against the Arizona Rattlers.

2019 GAME SUMMARIES

Tonight, in the third and final matchup of the "Iowa Bowl", the (1-9) River Kings fell short against the (8-1) Iowa Barnstormers with a final score of 43-18.

In the opening kick-off, the River Kings were able to strip the ball and recovered. That set a high tone for the River Kings, however, that energy seemed to fall flat shortly after.

The first quarter for the River Kings was not one to remember, as they did not play their best football. Wilkerson threw his first interception of the night, which turned into a touchdown short after for the Barnstormers by Peterson.

In the second quarter, Wilkerson found more of a rhythm, however, it was on his legs rather than with his arm. He had a few crucial runs after the pocket would collapse, which got the River Kings out of some difficult situations.

Phillip Nwosu found success in the first half, as he was kicking 100% (2/2) on two long field goals to give the River Kings their only points of the half.

The second half was a big step up for the River Kings offensively. Wilkerson found some more success through the air, and with that, the rest of the offense picked up their performance as well.

The first of two touchdowns for the River Kings was a great throw by Wilkerson to Jordan Smith. Unfortunately, after that touchdown, Nwosu's perfect streak found an end as he failed to convert the PAT.

After that, the defense was able to force a fumble, which gave the River Kings possession. The River Kings were able to then rush the ball up the middle with Wilkerson for the second touchdown of the night. Their two-point conversion, however, was unsuccessful.

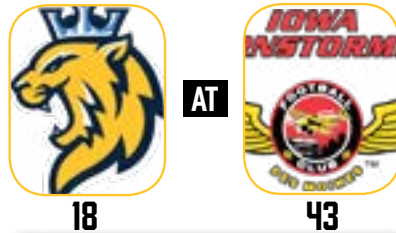

For the majority of the game, the Barnstormers seemed to have their way with the River Kings defense. Daquan Neal was the man with the plan as he was able to be involved in every touchdown the Barnstormers got.

Although this might not have been the best game for the River Kings, Ben Wilkerson showed that he is learning a lot about what it takes to be a quarterback in the IFL. In his second start, he showed a leap in success, and he looked like he was becoming more confident throughout the game; these games are crucial for a new quarterback.

The next game for the River Kings is Friday, May 17th, as the team has an upcoming bye week. Cedar Rapids is next in action Friday May 17th at the Quad City's Steamwheelers.

Both teams had not-so-stellar showings on special teams. The River Kings earned 171 yards on nine total kickoff returns, including Chavious' touchdown runback. The Danger had eight kickoff returns for 207 yards and a touchdown of their own, scored by Eric Thomas.

Cedar Rapids could not get their offense going out of the gate, generating just nine points in the first half. Wilkerson was just one for four throwing the ball in the first half. He had two interceptions through the first 30 minutes as well.

Kicker Phillip Nwosu had all nine points for Cedar Rapids in the first half, going three for four. He ended the CEDAR RAPIDS, IA - The Cedar Rapids River Kings dropped a hard-fought battle with the Sioux Falls Storm, 47-44 in front of 1,117. The week one contest was Cedar Rapids first game as the newly rebranded River Kings.

The River Kings offense was efficient in the first half, gaining 172 total yards of total offense on just 25 plays. They were led by quarterback Kurt Palandech who went 11-13 for 130 yards and three touchdowns.

Running back Nate Chavious scored the first touchdown of the 2019 season, running in from the one yard line just four minutes into the game.

Through the first half the River Kings defense held the Storm offense to just 87 total yards and forcing three field goal attempts. Travonti Johnson and Jeff Branch each had a tackle for loss and together they had five tackles. The Storm earned most of their yards on special teams with 166 yards on seven kick returns, including a 48 yard touchdown return.

Halftime adjustments limited the offensive scoring, as both teams managed just three points between them in the third quarter. The River Kings' Henry Nell connected on a 35 yard field goal but missed on a blank blank yarder. Sioux Falls' Miles Bergner missed a 45 yarder on his one try of the quarter.

The Storm tied things up with a Bergner field goal early in the fourth quarter, but the River Kings answered right back, first with a 37 yard pass completion from Palandech to Wade, which set up a three yard touchdown by Nate Chavious, his second of the night.

Sioux Falls tied things up on a 10 yard touchdown run by Brandon Sheperd, and after the Bergner PAT the score was tied at 44. Despite receiving the ball at the 25 yard line, the River Kings were unable to convert a first down and settled for a field goal attempt with just over one minute left by Henry Nell, who was wide left.

The Storm received the ball and drove to the Cedar Rapids' 21 yard line, running the clock down to two seconds left in the game before scoring a 34 yard field goal by Bergner.
