Failure to do this will result in a one hundred (100) dollar fine. Protected lists must have the date and time of the list, along with the players' names and card numbers. Contents of protected lists must be communicated by the Commissioner to all Governors and the Statistician as changes occur.
2. Once protected lists have been submitted, all players on it are recognized by this league as the property of the respective team, and will remain so until released or traded.
3. Until the submission of this list, players by virtue of a previously signed card or a trade are protected.
4. Any player selected in a dispersal draft remains the property of the team for the remainder of that season. With the option to stay with the current team or the last team they played with before the dispersal draft.
5. A player selected in the current year's dispersal draft and not protected after May 1st may be contacted through the General Manager of the team that originally chose him.
6. A player selected in the current year's dispersal draft who goes directly to the WLA and signs for a team, plays part of the season and is then released, must return to the WCSLA team that selected him in the dispersal draft.
7. Any player indebted to any team may be suspended by the WCSLA until resolved.
8. A suspended player can only be reinstated once per season by the team that suspended the player.

SECTION 11: ROSTERS

1. Each team's roster is frozen at thirty (30) minutes their game day during the regular playing season.
2. Each team must dress a minimum of twelve (12) players, which can be broken down as follows:
 - a. Twelve (12) players signed in the WCSLA, or eight (8) players registered in the WCSLA plus unlimited players call up registered in another league.
 - b. Call-ups may include a unlimited players registered in another league (Senior C, Junior B, or Junior A), A one game confirmation email from the team to the commissioner must accompany the game day roster.
 - c. Failure to comply with minimum player qualifications will result in a forfeit (See fines Sec 15 league Play subsection 6 defaulting).
3. Each team may place up to four (4) players on the injured reserve list. The injured list is to be kept updated by the team and reviewed by the Commissioner.

- a. The teams with four (4) players on the injured list must release two (2) players by 11:59 pm July 1st.
 - b. Players placed on the injured reserve list must remain there for a minimum of ten (10) days or three (3) games whichever comes first. This will start from the date of notification to the Commissioner. The game in which the player was injured does not count.
 - c. A player can be moved from the injured reserve list to the active roster (or vice versa) between July 1st and July 15th as long as they are either replacing a player for player, or are moving to an open roster spot. This not considered releasing a player.
 - d. In the event that the playoffs start before the July 15th deadline, no movement between the active roster and injured reserve list will be allowed once the playoffs begin.
 - e. A player on the injured reserve list after July 15th can be activated for play in the President's Cup as per BCLA / Lacrosse Canada rules.
 - f. Players on the injured reserve list may not play up in another league while on the injured reserve list. Offending players will be removed from the roster of the WCSLA team they signed with and will not be permitted to play for any WCSLA team for the remainder of the current season (including playoffs).
 - g. Players on the injured reserve list after the July 15th deadline remain the property of the WCSLA team they signed with, but prior to May 1st of the following playing season must be signed, released or put on the holdout list.
4. Each team may carry a holdout list with no greater than ten (10)-players on it who were registered members of said team.
- a. Holdout lists comprise of formerly signed players opting not to play as well as players currently signed by a WLA team.
 - b. Players placed on a holdout list must also have a date assigned to them.
 - c. Players can remain on the Holdout list for up to two (2) years from the date they were placed on the list, after which they become free agents.
 - d. Players placed on the Holdout list after signing a card in the current year, do not count against a team's possible carded players (active roster 25+2 injured reserve). Their card is released to the BCLA, but their playing rights remain with the team that last signed them.
 - e. A player can only be placed on a holdout list once in a season. If a team decides to activate a player from the holdout list, the player cannot be placed back on the holdout list at a later date.
 - f. Once a player is placed on the holdout list in a current season, they must be traded or released to be taken off with the exception of players who have moved to the WLA and return to their WCSLA team.
 - g. Any player on a holdout list may only play in a lower category until the player's name is removed from such list. A player may be removed from a holdout list by moving said player from holdout to active and submitting an updated protected list to the Commissioner, not including WLA holdouts.
4. Teams may also submit a WLA holdout list. This is composed of players that are either currently registered by the WLA or legitimately trying out at a WLA camp. The Commissioner may at any time ask teams to present a written letter from the General Manager of the WLA team that said player is reporting to. Once a player is carded in the WLA they remain on the list for up to two (2) years. There is no player limit to the number of names on this list.
6. After the final rosters have been handed into to the Commissioner on July 15th, each team's roster is frozen until they have been eliminated from competition in the WCSLA. This includes the movement of players between the active roster and the injured reserve.

SECTION 12: PLAYER MOVEMENT

1. Trades within the league must be written and signed by both teams involved. The agreement must be completed in full, including the date and the full names of players concerned, and be forwarded to the Commissioner within forty-eight (48) hours after the trade. See WCSLA Appendix "A" – Player Trade Agreement.
2. Players who have signed a registration card for the current season with a member team and later wish to move in a lateral direction within the WCSLA, must be in possession of a signed release from the last Manager to be submitted to the Commissioner for approval before being allowed to play with the new team.

3. Once a player is released by a team he becomes a free agent and is considered the property of the league. The team that released the player needs to inform the commissioner and the rest of the league with player contact information may not protect him after submitting their updated Protected List showing that the player has been released. Failure to notify the commissioner or rest of the league will result in a fifty (50) dollar fine.
4. The final signing date for players is July 1st at 11:59 pm. Players signed and released prior to July 1st at 11:59 pm may be added to a team's roster until July 15th at 11:59 pm providing they have room.
5. No player may be released or traded after July 1st 11:59 pm.
6. If the WCSLA holds a dispersal draft due to a team folding during the season the guidelines are as follows:
 - a. Member teams will select players in each round, in the reverse order of the previous year's final standings. Once a team passes, they will no longer be able to draft players.
 - b. No team from the Lower Mainland will select a player from a Vancouver Island team without a Letter of Intent from that Player indicating he will play for the team if selected. No team from Vancouver Island will select a player from a Lower Mainland team without a Letter of Intent from that player indicating he will play for the team if selected.
 - c. Letter of Intent must be presented to the Commissioner at the time of drafting the player.
 - d. Teams may trade dispersal picks for players and /or selection order, and are prohibited from selling a dispersal pick for cash.
 - e. All trades involving dispersal players must be approved by the Commissioner.
 - f. Only registered players on the Protected List and circulated draft are eligible for dispersal within the WCSLA.

SECTION 13: REFEREE FEES

1. Negotiations of referee fees are the responsibility of the Board of Governors, or a duly appointed liaison officer as directed by the Executive. During playoffs, the home team is responsible for paying both referees. When the playoff series goes to an odd number of games each team will pay one referee.

SECTION 14: TROPHIES

1. All league trophies must be submitted, in good condition, to the Commissioner by July 1st. Failure to meet these requirements will carry a fifty ($50) dollar fine for each trophy to a maximum of replacement value. Each team shall receive prior notice to return the trophies.
2. Any player eligible for a league award must have played a minimum of 1/2 of the regular season league games.

SECTION 15: JERSEYS, HELMETS AND MASKS

1. Helmets and masks must meet LC standards. All players must wear a helmet of the designated colour of his team. Failure to have all players in same coloured helmets will result in a fifty (50) dollar fine. Call up players will be exempt. New acquired players have a ten (10) grace period.
2. The home team will wear dark jersey. Should there be a colour conflict, the home team will change to jerseys or bibs of a distinctive colour.

SECTION 16: LEAGUE PLAY

1. League playoffs will commence following the completion of league play.

2. Ties – Regular season game only. Games ending in a tie: There will be a two (2) minute stoppage in play. There will be one (1) five (5) minute period of Sudden Victory, teams will play 4 on 4. The goalie cannot be removed for an extra attacker unless on a delayed penalty. If still tied, game is a draw. No Mercy Rule.
3. No games to be played on the Friday, Saturday, Sunday and/or Monday of any long weekend, unless mutually agreed by both teams.
4. Defaulted Games

A defaulted game occurs under one of the following situations:

- a. A team fails to appear at the appointed time and place for the game as agreed to by the ratified schedule.
 - b. A team appears at the appointed time and place but does not have the required number of players to start the game.
 - c. A team for any reason fails to finish the game.
 - d. In the event of a defaulted game the non-offending team shall be awarded the win and all that comes with the win.
5. Fines and Suspensions as a result of defaulted games
 - a. Any team defaulting a game will pay a penalty of One thousand five hundred ($1500.00) to the league dollars plus expenses to the non-defaulting team. The Commissioner will be notified of the situation as soon as possible. This refers to teams that just decided not to go. Defaulting is not showing up, has nothing to do with rescheduling.
 - b. Any team that does not pay their fines and costs from a defaulted game or games within in forty-eight (48) hours will be considered not in good standing and unable to play any league games or any and all playoff rounds, Provincial Championships, Canadian National Champions and all BCLA and LC sanctioned events/tournaments. The franchise will be fined another $500 five hundred per subsequent game until their fine was paid up in full.
 - c. Any team that does not pay its fines and costs from a defaulted playoff game within twenty four (24) hours of the occurrence will immediately forfeit that playoff round and will not be allowed to participate in any further BCLA or LC sanctioned events/tournament. As per the BCLA Operating Policy, defaulting a playoff game will result in a team's elimination from the playoffs. In the event that any game (regular season or playoffs) is defaulted at no fault of the defaulting team, (highway accident, BC Ferry issues, act of God, etc.) both teams will attempt to reschedule. This does not include "missing the ferry" which will be considered the fault of the defaulting team. It would be the responsibility of the defaulting team to pay the default penalty to the non-defaulting team.

6. Rescheduling Games

- a. Any team wishing to reschedule a game must contact their opponent and the Commissioner within 48 hours prior to the scheduled game. However a team is not obligated to accept a request to reschedule a game. All rescheduled games must have the agreement of all three (3) bodies, which consists of both teams and the Commissioner. Without the agreement of all three (3) bodies the game must go on as originally scheduled and agreed to.
- b. A game or games that both teams and the Commissioner have agreed to must be changed from the originally scheduled date and time, must be confirmed within two (2) weeks of the originally scheduled date. If no consensus can be agreed upon by both teams, both teams must then supply a date and time to the Commissioner who will arbitrate the disagreement and fix a game date and time. The Commissioner has the authority to award points and fines or suspensions to one or both teams if they fail to appear for the date and time set out by the Commissioner under this circumstance. The Commissioner must be updated on all rescheduled games.
- c. The Commissioner is responsible for notifying the webmaster/statistician and referee allocator of any rescheduled games.

7. In the event of a tie in points at the end of league play, the final league standings shall be determined as per the BCLA Operating Policy: Senior, Regulation 14: Championships 14.07.
8. President's Cup hosting would not be an option during the first five (5) years in the league or within three (3) years of returning from a hiatus.
9. The league agrees to accept and use ONLY an electronic game sheet as provided by the webmaster/statistician.
The supporting documents that are kept for reference are the home team's responsibility and must include:
 - a. A submitted league approved game day roster (in jersey number order), signed and dated by the representative of the team with players not dressed crossed out. If there are any call up players, they must be listed with a jersey number and a one game permit must be provided or the email confirmation to opposing team as well as commissioner.
 - b. The stat sheet supplied by the webmaster/statistician.
10. The regular season schedule will be discussed by the governors annually before the beginning of the season.

SECTION 17: LEAGUE PLAYOFFS

1. All players must have participated in two (2) scheduled regular season games for any team and be listed on the score sheets to qualify for participation in the entire WCSLA playoffs and Provincial Championships. This includes registered players, out-of-province players, and call ups.
2. During league playoffs and Provincial Championships BCLA Senior Directorate Operating Policies will apply. During President's Cup National Championships LC Operating Policies will apply.
3. The winner of the WCSLA playoffs shall be declared Provincial Champions and represent BC at the LC Championship.
4. All teams entering into the playoffs must be prepared to represent BC at the LC Championship. If a team is unable to represent BC they must declare this information to the Commissioner prior to the start of the playoffs, and that team will no longer be eligible to enter the LC Championship that season.
5. If a team enters into the playoffs and becomes the Provincial Champions and does not participate in the LC Championships and did not previously declare their inability to participate, that team will be responsible to pay all expenses the league incurred to have a BC representative at the Championship. This includes but is not limited to any fines imposed for non-representation, airfare and tournament entry fees.
6. The playoff schedule will be discussed on an annual basis before playoffs.

SECTION 18: EXPANSION

1. Applications for new teams wishing to enter the WCSLA must be submitted at the WCSLA AGM which is held prior to January of the following year, and voted on by the members.
2. A new team applying for entrance into the WCSLA must pay a fee of five thousand ($5000.00) to the league.
3. See BCLA Operating Policy: Senior, Appendix One.
4. Any team that relocates, requires a majority vote by Board of Governors approving relocation and the fee will be waived.

SECTION 19: PLAYER AND TEAM PERSONNEL SUSPENSION GUIDELINES
