Head Coach - Pat Healey

After a very successful and championship laden playing career in Baltimore, Pat Healey was named Head Coach and General Manager for the Heat prior to the 2018/2019 MASL season. Healey proceeded to improve the Harrisburg Heat win total by 83% in the first season as he increased the number of wins from six in 2017/2018 to eleven in the 2018/2019 season. That improvement continued the following year as the Heat were poised to make the playoffs before the 2019/2020 MASL season ended due to the pandemic. The Heat had a record of 13-8 when the season abruptly ended. Healey was a Finalist for the MASL Coach of the Year Award for the 2019/2020 season. After not playing during the 2020/2021 season, Healey continues to rebuild the Heat team.

MATCH PREVIEW

Quick Hits

The Harrisburg Heat enter the weekend with a record of 0-9. The Heat have lost to Baltimore two times this season with both losses being in Towson, Maryland. The last time these two teams met was January 13th with Baltimore winning 5-3. The Baltimore Blast have a record of 4-5 with their last game being a loss in St. Louis by a score of 8-3.

Prior to the last game in Baltimore, the Harrisburg Heat signed goalkeeper, Jorge Navarrete for the remainder of the season. Navarrete played the previous four season for the Florida Tropics along with goalkeeper Hugo Silva. Navarrete was in the nets for the 5-3 loss in Baltimore on January 13th. This was the last game that the Heat had played prior to this weekend.

Dominic Francis leads the Heat in goals scored with 13 and points with 19. Joey Tavernese is the leader in assists for the Heat with 7. Tavernese also has scored 5 goals this season. Malcolm Harris and Danny DiPrima both have recorded 11 points this year. DiPrima has 7 goals and 4 assists while Harris has 6 goals and 5 assists.

The Heat return their top three scorers from last year in Malcolm Harris, Dominic Francis and Danny DiPrima. In addition, the Heat return experienced defensive players with Elton de Oliveira, Robbie Williamson and Brad Kerstetter.

Key off-season acquisitions included forward Joey Tavernese, defender Onua Obasi and goalkeeper Hugo Silva. Each of these players have achieved great success in the league. Tavernese is an eleven-year veteran of professional indoor soccer. Tavernese has played for five different franchises and has proven to be an excellent goal scorer on all of them. Tavernese previously played for the Rochester Lancers, Ontario Fury, Syracuse Silver Knights, Utica City FC and the Florida Tropics. Tavernese was named to the second team all-MASL team in the 2017/2018 season. Defender Onua Obasi has played six seasons in the indoor game playing for the Baltimore Blast, Utica City FC and the Ontario Fury. Obasi was a teammate of current Heat Head Coach, Pat Healey, on the 2016 Baltimore Blast team that won the MASL title. Goalkeeper Hugo Silva returns to the Harrisburg Heat where he played from 2016 to 2018. Silva has been the starting goalkeeper for the Florida Tropics for the past five seasons. Silva was a finalist in the Goalkeeper of the Year award in the MASL for the 2019/2020 season.

Due to visa issues with Hugo Silva, Grant Glorioso started the season as the number one goalkeeper for the Harrisburg Heat. Last year's starting goalkeeper, Chase Vosvick, has not returned this season as he has decided to pursue graduate school. Glorioso was obtained by the Heat in the 2022 MASL Combine. Glorioso played three games for the Harrisburg Heat last season and had a goals-against average of 6.19 per game. With the signing of Jorge Navarrete, the Heat now have two goalkeepers with MASL experience.

As well as Hugo Silva, visa issues also are preventing Lesia Thetsane, Davinson Diaz, Daniel Villela, and James Vaughan from starting the season with the Harrisburg Heat.

HEAD TO HEAD

This is the third meeting of the season between the Baltimore Blast and the Harrisburg Heat. The Baltimore Blast have won the first two games in their home arena. Last year the two sides met six times with each team winning their three home games.

Harrisburg Players To Watch:

Dominic Francis leads the team in goals scored with 13 and points with 19. Francis is a former league all-star.

Malcolm Harris returns to the Heat midfield this season. Last year Harris led the team in points with 21. Harris has 11 points this season with 6 goals and 5 assists.

Joey Tavernese is a free agent acquisition for the Harrisburg Heat this year. Tavernese played for Utica City FC last season before ending the season with the Florida Tropics. Tavernese leads the team in assists with 7.

Danny DiPrima, Captain of the Heat, has recorded 11 points with 7 goals and 4 assists this year.

Baltimore Players To Watch:

Juan Pereira leads the Baltimore Blast with 13 points including 6 goals and 7 assists.

Tony Donatelli, captain of the Blast, has 12 points with 9 goals and 3 assists.

Victor Parreiras was a key acquisition in the off season. Parreiras previously played for the Florida Tropics for seven seasons. He has recorded 8 points this season in the 6 games that he has played.

Injury Report:
