2024-2025 Dallas Sidekicks Game Notes

GAME PREVIEW

Allen, Texas (March 6, 2025) – The Dallas Sidekicks (5-14) look to return to the win column after losing their last three games as they prepare to face the Texas Outlaws (3-13) in Mesquite on Saturday, March 8. The season series is tied 2-2.

The most recent meeting between the two teams took place on February 26, featuring a high-scoring contest with a combined 24 goals. The Outlaws secured a narrow 13-11 victory in a game that remained competitive until the final minute. Midfielder Yahir Romero and forward Blas Pérez each recorded hat tricks, while rookie midfielder Diego Cuellar made his MASL debut with an impressive two goal performance. Nestor Hernandez also contributed two goals, with Jamie Lovegrove adding one.

In recent roster moves, the Sidekicks traded Kristian Quintana to the San Diego Sockers, Yahir Romero to the Tacoma Stars, and Colin O’Keefe to the St. Louis Ambush. To reinforce their squad, Dallas acquired Salvadoran National Team player, Joaquin Rivas and welcomed back former Sidekicks players Felipe De Sousa and Flavio Guzman.

The Outlaws enters the contest following an 8-0 defeat against the Empire Strykers last Sunday, marking the MASL’s first shutout since the 2021 season. The Sidekicks will need to focus on Texas’ leading scorer, David Stankovic, who has record 14 goals this season, as well as Steven Chavez who has contributed six goals and 10 assists.

Following Saturday’s match, the Sidekicks will return home to the Credit Union of Texas Event Center to host the Tacoma Stars on Monday, March 10. Tickets are available now at DallasSidekicks.com/Tickets or by calling our office at 469-393-0160.
