1/29/22	Baltimore	PA Farm Show Arena
2/5/22	Dallas	Credit Union of TX Event Center

HEAD TO HEAD

Harrisburg and Baltimore have faced off once already this season with Baltimore taking the win in their home arena. The teams will meet for this game in Harrisburg and then four additional times this season.

Quick Hits (Interesting Facts for broadcasts)

Harrisburg Heat are returning to the MASL after sitting out last year due to the pandemic.

Heat return all-stars Elton de Oliveira and Dominic Francis to their squad this year.

Former Heat defenders Stephen Basso and Brad Kerstetter are returning from retirement. Basso is a former MASL Defender of the Year.

Heat have been hurt by the failure to receive visa approvals on four players including Daniel Villela who is a returning all league player. Heat also did not receive approvals for forwards Yuri Farkas and Ricardo John as well as midfielder, James Vaughan.

Heat season has been negatively impacted by a covid outbreak on the team. The team was not allowed to practice for two weeks after the last home game on December 18th. Fortunately, the excellent medical staff from Penn State Health helped the team recover with proper guidance through the outbreak. Practice was also impacted this week as the team was unable to return from Florida until Tuesday instead of the scheduled return of Sunday due to the snow and ice.

MATCH PREVIEW

Harrisburg Players To Watch:

Dominic Francis – Forward

In Harrisburg's last season (2019/2020), Dom scored 34 goals which was 4th in the MASL. Francis was selected to the league's all star game in 2020. Francis was on loan with the Kansas City Comets last year where he scored four goals in five games. Francis added seven additional goals in the playoffs along with three assists in the Comets' five playoff games.

Elton de Oliveira – Defender

In 2019/2020, de Oliveira played in all twenty-one games for the Heat. He recorded thirteen goals and six assists while adding thirty-eight blocks. Elton was selected to the 2020 all star game. Last season, de Oliveira was loaned to the Tacoma Stars. Elton is also a two-time MASL champion with the Baltimore Blast.

Danny DiPrima – Midfielder

DiPrima, a local product from Dillsburg, Pennsylvania, is playing in his fifth season with the Heat. DiPrima is the captain of the Harrisburg Heat. In 2019/2020, DiPrima scored three goals while adding ten assists and fourteen blocks.

Baltimore Players To Watch:

Lucas Roque - Forward

Leads the team with 13 points. Won the play-off MVP in 2016.

Jonatas Melo - Midfielder

Second on the team with 10 points.

William Vanzela - Goalkeeper

Currently ranks third in the league in goals against average with 4.57 goals against. Was the playoff MVP in 2013 and 2018.

STAFF

Head Coach -Pat Healey

After a very successful and championship laden playing career in Baltimore, Pat Healey was named Head Coach and General Manager for the Heat prior to the 2018/2019 MASL season. Healey proceeded to improve the Harrisburg Heat win total by 83% in the first season as he increased the number of wins from six in 2017/2018 to eleven in the 2018/2019 season. That improvement continued the following year as the Heat were poised to make the playoffs before the 2019/2020 MASL season was ended due to the pandemic. The Heat had a record of 13-8 when the season was abruptly ended. Healey was a Finalist for the MASL Coach Of The year Award for the 2019/2020 season. The Heat did not play last year.
