Active with Prowlers

The Port Huron Prowlers are playing in their 12th season in the Federal Prospects Hockey League (FPHL) in 2026-27. The makes them the second-longest tenured hockey team in Port Huron History after the IHL's Flags/Wings who played from 1962-81. It also makes them the second-oldest franchise in the FPHL behind the Watertown Wolves however, the Wolves took 2015-16 off. The Prowlers have made the playoffs in nine of the eleven seasons there was a postseason in their history (minus 2019-20). They have reached the Commissioner's Cup Finals twice, winning it all in 2016, their inaugural season.

The Prowlers are owned by Ken Andrews, who took over during the 2025 off-season and also owns the Motor City Rockers. The team is run by general manager/head coach Matt Graham, assistant general manager/assistant coach Alex Johnson and associate head coach Chris Paulin who put together the team on the ice and sell tickets and advertising.

The Prowlers play their home games at historical McMorran Place in downtown Port Huron and offer entertainment for the community during the winter months. The team has a history of players who stick around for a long time and become large parts of the community as well as players who make their way up to higher levels.
