THE LEAD

The San Diego Sockers (3-6), presented by Kaiser Permanente San Diego, wrap up the 2021 MASL regular season when they take on the Dallas Sidekicks (1-9) from the Allen Events Center in Allen, Texas. The showcase of the league's sixth and seventh-ranked clubs will bring a close to the Major Arena Soccer League regular-season schedule, with all seven participating teams advancing to the Ron Newman Cup playoffs.

Saturday's showdown pits historically strong franchises against one another; however, the current iterations could be described as the resistible force meeting the movable object. The Sockers have lost four in a row for the first time since coming back to play in 2009 (Sockers-3), and have already clinched the franchise's first losing season since 2004, when Sockers-2 folded. The Sidekicks have lost five in a row, and are 4-28 in their last 32 contests.

While the standings do neither club any favors, the playoff matchups have already been determined regardless of Saturday's result. The Sockers will face Tacoma in a best-of-three in Ontario, California in the opening round, while the Sidekicks will take on the second-seeded Ontario Fury.

Saturday's primary goal will be to continue to refine the league's most struggling offense. The usually high-powered Sockers, slowed by COVID and injury during the season, are scoring an unfathomable 3.56 goals per game, a total that would have been frowned upon in previous years for a 30-minute total. Only five Sockers have multiple goals after nine games, led by Brandon Escoto (10-2=12 points). San Diego's defense is allowing just 4.33 goals per game, best in the MASL (Florida second, 4.58).

Last weekend saw frustration take different shapes, as San Diego lost to Ontario 6-4 and Tacoma 5-4 (OT). Against the Fury, the Sockers dominated possession, flow, and the shot chart, but surrendered three counter-attack goals in the second quarter and trailed 4-0 into the fourth. Against the Stars, San Diego defended in a rugged fashion but mounted an only sporadic attack, nonetheless taking three different leads before allowing an equalizer in the final two minutes, and a golden goal in overtime.

BY THE NUMBERS

YEARS SINCE THE TEAM HAS HAD A LOSING RECORD AT THE END OF A SEASON (2004)

STORYLINES

Back in the Nick of Time?

The Sockers continue to monitor the progress of team captain Kraig Chiles and defender Felipe Gonzalez, each of whom are targeting a playoff return to the field, if not before. Gonzalez will have to settle for a playoff mindset, as he took a late red card on Sunday for dissent and will be suspended for the Dallas match. Chiles' absence has been apparent on offense, as he has been held to a lone goal on the season in three matches played.

Tavoy to the Rescue

Needing help at target forward, San Diego reached out to Harrisburg, acquiring forward Tavoy Morgan via loan prior to last weekend's matches. The move paid immediate dividends, as Morgan recorded an assist in his Sockers debut, then netted a brace in the Sunday loss to Tacoma, giving San Diego a 2-0 lead with his efforts. Morgan is wearing #9 with the Sockers.

Poor Luck Pardo

Veteran net-minder Boris Pardo is at the top of his game in 2021. Teaming with William Vanzela to form an all-MASL tandem in net, Pardo leads the league in save percentage (.753), and goals-against average (4.01). Florida's Hugo Silva ranks second in both categories (.734 and 4.43, respectively); however, Silva has 10 wins on the season while Pardo has one.

Back (Line) Support

San Diego welcomed in another pair of outside players prior to the Ontario-Tacoma matches last week, acquiring defender Ben Ramin via a loan from Utica City FC, and signing free-agent defender Nelson Santana. Both started each of the Sockers games in Ontario, and each recorded a blocked shot.

Farber Back in the Fold

One of the Sockers' most reliable veterans since his arrival in 2010, Brian Farber looked like a shell of himself at the start of the season. He shared publicly this week that he contracted COVID during San Diego's first road trip of the season, and has only started to return to a semblance of full health. Farber scored his first goal of the season Sunday against Tacoma.

WEST WINS 9-4 IN FIRST MASL ALL-STAR GAME

The Eastern Conference held close with the Western Conference through two quarters of play but two runs of markers from the West, powered their squad to a 9-4 win in the first MASL All-Star Game in front of an excited crowd at Cable Dahmer Arena in Independence, Missouri on December 5, 2020.
