ROAD TRIP REVIEW: The Ice Breakers’ recent six-game road trip didn’t go as planned, to say the least. Mentor dropped all six matchups on the three-week, two-city trip, including four losses in Port Huron. Following a pair of duds against the Prowlers, the Ice Breakers were outscored 16-2 over the first four periods of their two-game set against Columbus. From there, the team was able to settle down and edged out the River Dragons 7-3 over the remainder of the contest.

Following another setback last Friday against Port Huron, the Ice Breakers played one of their better games in recent weeks in a 4-3 loss to close out the road trip. D Jiri Pestuka was credited with a goal and an assist while D Dominick Horvath found the back of the net for the first time in his FPHL career.

VETERAN PRESENCE: The signing of F Josh Newberg is already paying dividends for the Ice Breakers. At the age of 32, Newberg is the oldest member of Mentor’s roster. He appeared in his 100th career FPHL game last Saturday and already has a goal and an assist over four outings as an Ice Breaker. Newberg, who broke into the league in 2017, provides a much-needed veteran voice in the locker room and has a 15-28-43 scoring line in his career. He had a 12-game stint with the ECHL’s Elmira Jackals in 2016, scoring at a point-per-game pace with four goals and eight assists.

SETTING RECORDS: With his goal in the third period against Columbus on February 8, F Declan Conway set a new franchise record for points in a single season (52). He has 72 career points in Mentor and needs only one more to take over as the Ice Breakers’ all-time leading scorer.

STILL PRODUCING: Over the last month or so, F Steven Fowler has been Mentor’s most dangerous forward. When healthy, the 22-year-old is a point-per-game scorer in the FPHL and has posted an 8-13-21 line in 22 appearances. Since the calendar flipped to 2020, Fowler has registered at least a point in 11 of his 13 games, including three multi-point performances.

IRON MAN: With several players missing games for the first time this season on the Ice Breakers’ recent road trip, F Alex Morrow has become the team’s leader in games played, appearing in all 41 contests to date. In his career, Morrow has suited up for 90 games as an Ice Breaker, trailing only F Nate Farrington for the team record.

MAGIC NUMBER: Throughout the season, the Ice Breakers have seen tremendous success when scoring four goals or more, winning 13 of 14 games. Unfortunately, Mentor has hit that number only twice since the beginning of January. Both games were victories.

WELCOME BACK: Tonight’s game marks the return of F Mark Essery to Northeast Ohio. The Framingham, Massachusetts native was traded to Elmira on February 6 in exchange for Horvath and F Jack Chudleigh, who has not reported to Mentor. Essery, who was the Ice Breakers’ leading scorer a season ago with 51 points, has dished out three assists and earned a plus-three rating over seven outings as an Enforcer.

MILESTONE ALERT: Former FPHL Rookie of the Year and current Enforcer F Stepan Timofeyev needs only one more point to reach 100 in his career. The 24-year-old Russian is back in the fold following a 36-game stint with the Macon Mayhem (SPHL) that saw him post 15 points (4-11-15).

POWERED UP: FPHL leading scorer F Tyler Gjurich scored his 18th power-play goal of the season last night. The next closest player has eight tallies on the man advantage. On the year, Gjurich paces the league with 39 goals.
