COMETS NEWS & NOTES

GAME PREVIEW: The Wave currently sit atop the South Central Division and the league as a whole with their undefeated record, which began with a 10-6 win on December 1 of last year-- Kansas City's first trip to Milwaukee.

Although they had a slow 1-5 start to the season, the Comets will travel to Milwaukee riding a 2-game winning streak, climbing to third place in the South Central Division. Milwaukee (+26) and Kansas City (+9) are currently the only teams in the division with positive goal differentials.

Milwaukee and Kansas City have plenty of experience against each other-- the teams have squared off 33 times since the 2010-2011 season of the MISL. The Wave lead the series 18-15, and an undefeated record along with home field advantage make for tough odds for the Comets.

Kansas City has struggled defensively against the Wave this season, allowing 10 goals in both previous matches. However, the Comets have also scored more goals on Milwaukee (6 and 8) than any other opponent this season.

To overcome the Wave's home field advantage, Kansas City will need lights-out performances from all players, especially Gibson, who continues to lead the league in points (22) and assists (12), as well as their other scoring leaders in John Sosa (4 goals, 7 assists) and Nacho Flores (6 goals, 4 assists).

Kim Roentved
Head Coach

This is Roentved's second turn behind the bench since the team returned to action in 2010.

Roentved previously coached the Comets from 2010 through the 2013-2014 season. He led the team to 36 wins and 34 losses, three straight playoffs and an appearance in the 2013 MISL Championship game.
