

United Championship Football League
"The way it should be"

Bullet points for our League.

Bi Laws and Rules: Once we have our set number of teams we will work on the rules and bi-laws as a group through Google docs to allow us to get the rules fixed, take out ones that don't make sense, and have a system everyone can follow

Teams: Although big leagues are great we are focusing on putting together teams that have a vision on what minor league football should be about, and want to be involved in making this level and our league what it should be.

Fees: Two of our 4 teams have already agreed and taken care of the league site, so that we can have the best one out there for our teams. www.thenewucfl.com, the goal of the league is to keep the fees low and expect it to be between 3-4 hundred (every effort is being made to keep the cost closer to 3).

Championship/ All-Star weekend: We will be announcing this shortly however the venue we have picked is going to be affordable and have showers etc to do it right. Also the championship city has many hotels and a good night life.

Awards: League will give plaques for division winners, Conference title winners and a trophy to the league winner. In addition after the cost of the game (so we can build revenue as a league the gate will then be split amongst the two teams in the game and the league. 50% will be broken down to 30% for the champion and 20% for the Runner up. This will also be done for the All-Star game.

Playing rules: NFL modified, main points are no crack backs, no chop blocking, and extra points will be from the 3 to encourage teams to attempt field goals, we feel these will help the style of play. In addition the league will have excessive swearing, any taunting, the N-Bomb etc be part of "unsportsmanlike conduct. Overtime will be NFL rules

All-Stars: We are working on doing this more NFL style to allow for players being conscious that other players effect their eligibility for the all-star team.

Titles: We would like everyone to participate if they feel they want to and bring ideas to the table. Once we get this league locked in with teams then titles will be given to the people that are most qualified and driven to help the league succeed. Titles will be narrow in scope to insure completion.

Mentor Program: Each team will have a sister team so to speak and work with them over the off-season to insure (1) they are legit and (2) so that they have someone to bounce ideas off of to make their team better and more competitive.

Communication and League meetings will be via conference call, with only 1 ("owners meeting) which will take place on all-star championship weekend.

Our site is in construction but can be viewed at www.thenewunfl.com

Playoff Standings will be based on league games only once we find the common ground for games played within the league as it grows.

Please feel free to give me a call if you have any question on something or if I left something out.:
