

BATTLE CREEK RUMBLE BEES

2019-2020 INTERNSHIP

PROGRAM

The Battle Creek Rumble Bees are currently seeking college students interested in a career in sports management, sports broadcasting, communications, marketing, hospitality management or any related field to intern with our organization this season. This is an exciting opportunity to be a part of a brand new professional hockey franchise and learn every aspect of operating a professional sports team. Internships will run from October to April and will include 24 home games as well as other events throughout the season as needed. Benefits of this program include;

- Flexible program tailored to the students interests and career goals
- Ability to earn commission on partnership and group ticket sales
- Experience in a wide-variety of departments including gameday operations, ticket sales, corporate partnerships, merchandise, broadcasting, equipment management, concessions and promotions.
- Networking with many individuals and organizations within the minor league hockey industry and the local community
- Fast-paced rewarding work environment
