Respect

- Treat all players, officials, and non-playing members with respect and courtesy
- Any form of discrimination, harassment, or bullying based on race, gender, sexual orientation, religion, or any other protected characteristic is unacceptable
- Respect the decisions made by officials and honour the spirit of fair play

Sportspersonship

- Play fairly and within the rules of the game
- Accept both victory and defeat graciously, and celebrate others' successes
- Support beginner players to have opportunities to engage in the play, regardless of whether they are on your team or not
- Taunting, trash-talking and celebrations are all fun and games, but ensure they do not cross a line into unsportsmanlike conduct

Safety

- Safety is the priority of this league and should be the priority of the players. We all have to go to work the next day.
- Refrain from actions that endanger other players or officials
- Follow all safety guidelines and equipment requirements set forth by KIHL
- If unwell with communicable illness, do not attend your scheduled game. If you are a close contact of someone with communicable respiratory illness, consider wearing a mask when in close proximity to others (e.g., in the changerooms)

Teamwork and Cooperation

- Collaborate with teammates and opponents to ensure a positive and enjoyable experience for everyone
- Encourage a supportive and inclusive environment within your team and the league as a whole
- Resolve conflicts calmly and respectfully – remember the result doesn't actually matter in any way
- Avoid “coaching” players unless players specifically ask for advice

Integrity

- Maintain honesty and integrity in all interactions related to league activities
- Refrain from cheating, dishonest behaviour, or any actions compromising the integrity of the game
- Report any incidents of misconduct or violation promptly to a member of the KIHLC Committee

Compliance with League Rules

- Familiarise yourself with, and adhere to, all rules and regulations set forth by the league
- Cooperate with officials and abide by their decisions and directives

Responsibility

- Take responsibility for your actions and their consequences
- Help maintain the cleanliness and upkeep of the Olympic Ice Skating Arena and their equipment

Communication

- Communicate openly and respectfully with teammates, opponents, officials, and administrators
- Provide constructive feedback and suggestions for the improvement of league operations and activities

Enforcement and Consequences

- Violations in this Code of Conduct may result in disciplinary action as outlined in the relevant Policies and Procedures, which could include warnings, suspensions, or expulsion from the league
